

DOLLINGS OFFICE HERE WILL CLOSE

District Branch Of Indiana Concern
Will Cease To Do Business Since
Receiver Is Appointed

SUIT IS A FRIENDLY ACTION

Filed By Hancock County Representative Of Company To Protect Interests Of Its Customers

The district offices of the R. L. Dollings company of Indiana in this city will be closed in a very few days, following the appointment of Bert McBride, former Rush county man receiver for the Indiana corporation and the International Note and Mortgage company, a subsidiary in Indianapolis it was announced today by Wallace Morgan, district manager.

Mr. Morgan said that he did not care to make any specific statement regarding the receivership, which is a friendly action, until he had received word from the receiver as to what action to take, but that the district office here would be closed because the R. L. Dollings company will cease to do business.

Mr. Morgan reiterated the statement made at the local office the first of this week, that the receivership would not jeopardize the stock of any of the industrial concerns which have been financed by the Dollings company. He asserted that every company financed by the Dollings Company paid dividends July 1 and that they were sound at that time.

The district manager explained that the receivership of the Indiana branch of the Dollings company was a friendly action filed by Herbert E. Fink, of Greenfield, representative of the company in Hancock county and that the receiver is president of the Continental National bank, where the Dollings company of Indiana did business.

These steps were taken, it is explained, so that the assets of the company would be in friendly hands and the interests of the stockholders would be conserved as much as possible.

Mr. Morgan stated that very little of the Dollings company stock proper had been sold in Rush county, but that most of the investments by Rush county people had been in concerns financed by the Dollings company, which are not affected by the receivership action.

The allegation that the R. L. Dollings company of Ohio, majority owner of the stock of the two Indiana concerns, is involved in receivership proceedings was the basis for the request for a receiver for the Indiana company. The Ohio

ONE DAY SESSION IN COURT MONDAY

Judge Sparks Will Hold Adjourned
Session For Convenience Of Attorneys Having Papers To File

CRANLEY TO BE ARRAIGNED

Circuit court will hold a one day session on Monday, which has been designated as the adjourned session of the May term, as Judge Sparks set aside this day when the term officially closed June 30.

The one day session was provided to take care of any minor court procedure that might come up and which will relieve the heavy strain on the opening of the fall term. Many probate cases will be taken care of on Monday.

No regular court cases will be heard, as the day was set aside for the convenience of attorneys who had papers to file on cases that are pending, and in several matters an issue is pending that might be taken up and disposed of on that day.

James Cranley, who is in jail on a charge of transporting liquor, will be arraigned on the charge, it is understood. Prosecutor Ketchum file some affidavits in the criminal stated that he would also probably court, and as there are some bench warrants that have not been served, from recent grand jury indictments, they might also be served on Monday, if the defendants can be located.

NURSE WELL KNOWN HERE

Grace Burris Of Laurel Commits
Suicide In Cincinnati Hospital

Miss Grace Burris, 22 years old, daughter of Jesse Burris of the Wesley Chapel neighborhood, near Laurel, who committed suicide in Cincinnati Thursday evening, was well known in Rushville and southern Rush county. She was taking a nurse training course in a hospital in that city and would have completed her course in February.

The deceased left a note in which she made directions for her funeral services and burial. The note of her suicide is said to have been a lover's quarrel, in which her sweetheart made it known to her that he was engaged to another girl. She took poison and died a few hours afterwards.

COMPANY C IS A SATISFIED LOT

Rush County Guardsmen Hope To Make Showing Equal To That Of
Last Summer Training Period

SECOND BEST IN REGIMENT

Second Week Will Be Spent At Camp
Knox, Ky.—Men Will Be Awarded Medals For Work

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Camp, Knox, Kentucky, July 20.—Company "C" of the 151st. Infantry, National Guard unit from Rushville, Indiana, arrived here Sunday evening about dusk for a fifteen day intensive training period. This organization commanded by Capt. W. B. Brann, assisted by Lieutenants Kinney and Hardwick made an enviable record here during the summer encampment last year and is expected to make an equal showing during the present period. Company "C" was considered second best in the regiment, holding highest honors for first Battalion.

The personnel of Company "C" is considered very good and is a satisfied lot. The mess is very good, being prepared by experienced cooks and supervised by men with forethought. Meats and vegetables constitute the greater part of the meals but at the present time the odor of apple pie comes from the kitchen. Ice cream and cake will add an extra touch to the evening meals. The men are quartered comfortably in barracks, during the first week of training, which are inspected regularly and are kept in a sanitary condition. The bathing facilities are much improved and after drill every man in the organization is seen under the shower, taking advantage of the opportunity to keep his body clean and in condition to perform the duties assigned to him.

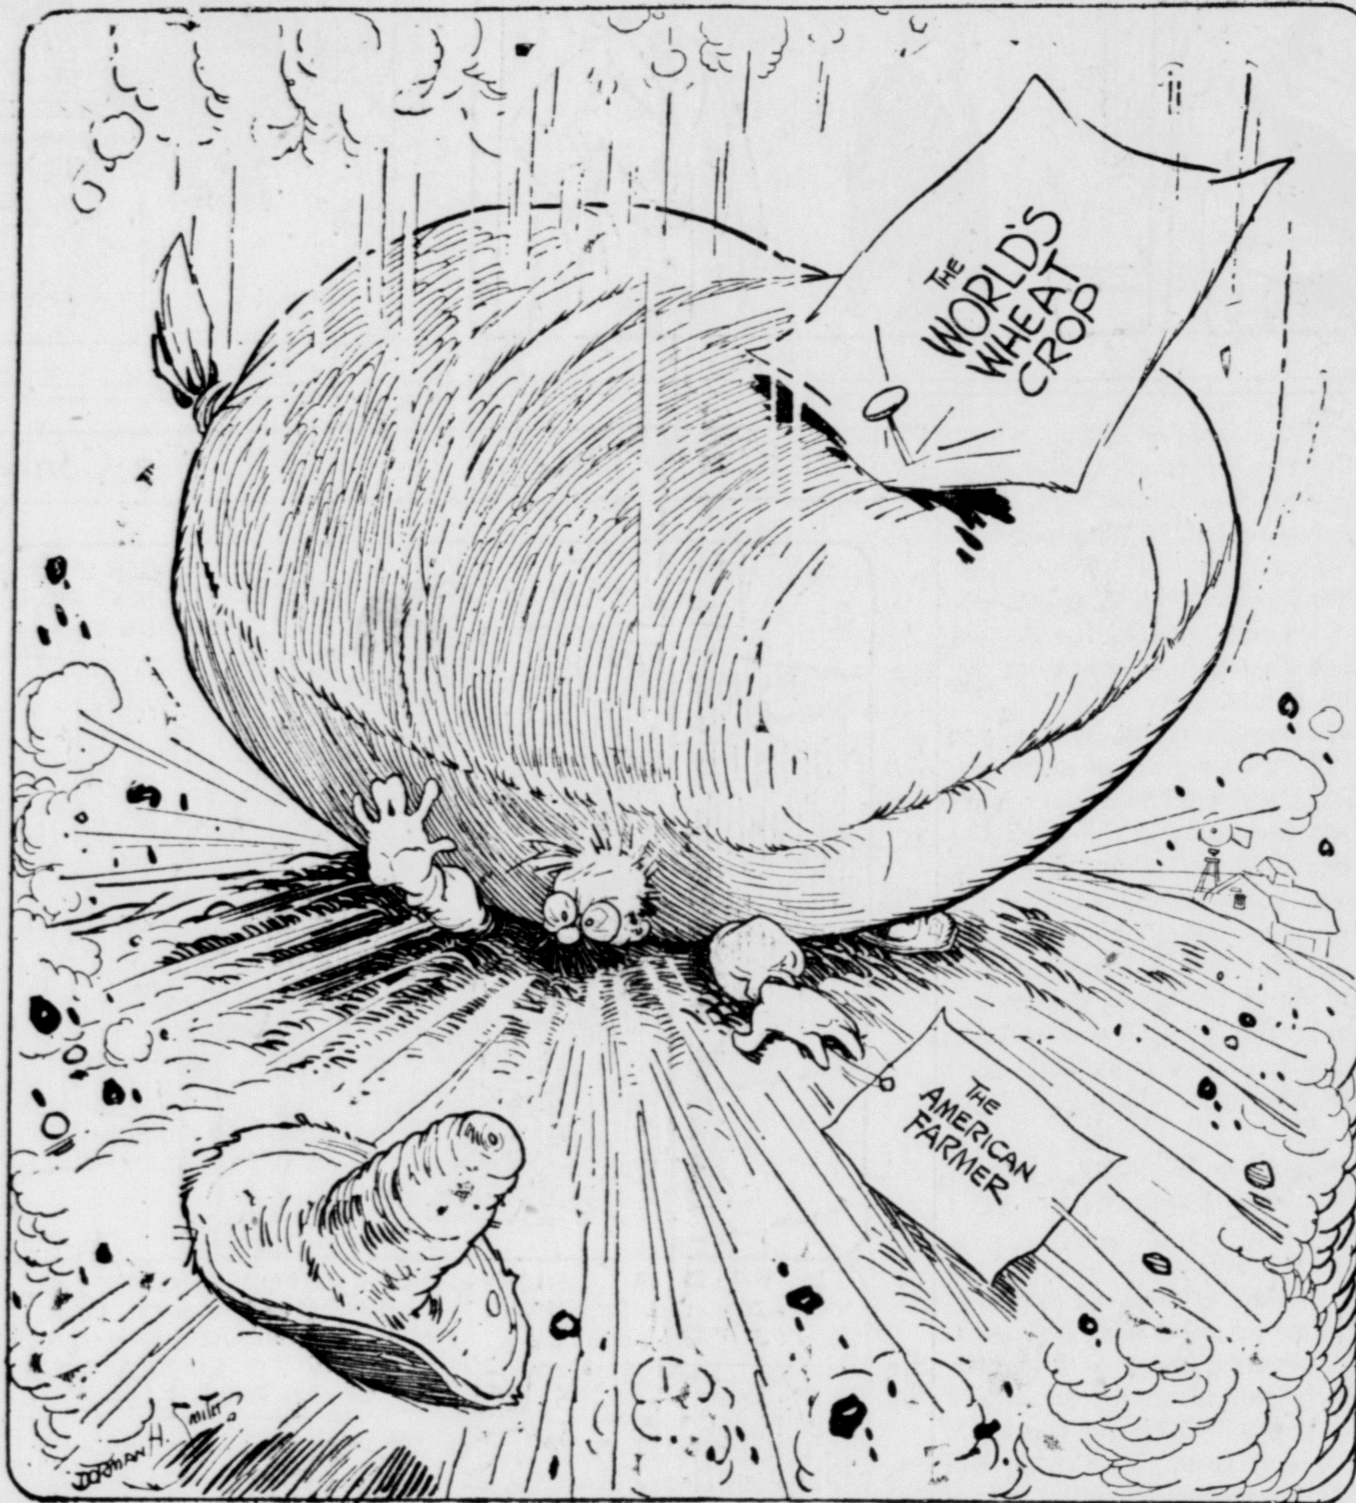

The mornings of the first week are spent in training with the rifle in musketry, close order drill, school of the squad, platoon and company. In the afternoon lectures are given the men by officers of the company and by officers assigned for this purpose. The second week will be spent on the range where the organization will do preliminary firing in preparation for record firing. Men of the company will be awarded medals for their qualification in the different classes on the last Saturday, in camp.

96-Acre Field of Wheat Averages 26 Bushels to Acre

Another remarkable wheat yield has been reported by the Ball and Orme grain elevator, in which a 96-acre field on the Mrs. Boone Power farm yielded 26 bushels to the acre. The farm is tenanted by Joe Shockley. The wheat graded number 2, and there was no trace of smut in which a 96-acre field on the threshing machine that did the work, also set a record, as it went through 1020 bushels without a single stop, which is considered as something unusual for a piece of machinery.

Absolute Silence Regarding Terms

By LLOYD ALLEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, July 21.—Contents of the British note to Germany were carefully guarded today to give France and Belgium time to study their drafts of the document and express approval, if they wish, before the note is delivered in Berlin.

Unofficially, it is said that the document is firm in tone, and suggests that Germany cease passive resistance and begin to think about paying up, but all such forecasts are unauthorized.

Drafts of the note, with a covering letter, were handed to France and Belgium and American representatives last night. An early reply from the allies was requested.

The count de St. Aulaire, French ambassador to the court of St. James, hurried immediately to Paris to confer with Premier Poincare.

It was learned that the draft of the British note sent to Paris last night reached the Quai d'Orsay at noon. A covering letter requested the French not to publish the contents yet.

Paris, July 21.—Absolute silence regarding the terms of the British note and French reaction thereto was commanded by Premier Poincare as, with several of his ministers, he commenced study of the document. A special courier delivered the note at noon.

"DODGE" INCOME TAX

St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—Fifteen hundred Missouri firms have "dodged" their income tax returns for the year 1922, according to John T. Waddill, agent of the state tax commission, here checking St. Louis firms. Half of these firms are in St. Louis, Waddill said. Over $500,000 in delinquent taxes could be uncovered if an adequate force were available to check up these firms, Waddill declared.

"The Shepherd of The Hills" To Be Given At Rush County Chautauqua

SCENES FROM "THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS".

There is no more popular play up on the American platform than this beautiful and homelike story of Ozark mountain life, adapted from the book by that name by Harold Bell Wright. The story is presented by a company of eight experienced artists. They have had the advantage of several seasons' experience on the Chautauqua platform, as well as the training given in the famous Wales Studios. The company will give this play at 7:30 August 9th. In the afternoon they will give the play "Revenge". This will make two splendid programs on the same day by this company. It will be one of the big days of the Chautauqua. The price of admission will be 50c on that day for adults and 25c for children, each admission into the grounds. Get a season ticket and attend the whole session, is the advice of chautauqua boosters.

MRS. SALLIE MOORE DIES AT AGE OF 87

Native Resident Of Rush County
Expires Friday Afternoon
Born At Milroy

FUNERAL MONDAY, 9:30 A. M.

Mrs. Sallie Moore, age 87 years a native of Rush county, expired Friday afternoon about four o'clock at her home, 306 West Tenth street, death being caused from complications arising with advanced age, and following poor health for several years.

The deceased was born near Milroy, and had resided in the county ever since. She would have been 88 years old in September. Her husband, Sanford Moore, preceded her in death 45 years ago, and since his death she made her home with her son, John S. Moore.

Besides the son, a step-daughter, Mrs. C. C. Goodell of Chicago, also survives. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church.

Funeral services for the deceased will be conducted Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the late residence, in charge of the Rev. J. W. Walker, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

CLEMENCY PLEA IS DENIED

Glen Downey Sent to Pendleton to Work on New Reformatory

Glen Downey, Rushville boy, who was sentenced in the Rush circuit court September 15, 1921, on a charge of vehicle taking, and who is now serving a three to five year sentence at the reformatory, has been denied his plea for clemency by Governor McCray. The local boy has been transferred to Pendleton, where the construction work for the new state reformatory is being pushed.

The governor granted 24 petitions for paroles, and in the list of refusing paroles, are 41 cases, in which the name of the local boy appears.

GOLDEN JUBILEE PLANS COMPLETE

Grand Officers Coming For 50th Anniversary Of Granting Of Charter
To K. Of P. Lodge

MAIN ADDRESS BY BASSETT

Pythian Sisters, Two Charter Members And Fifty-Year Members
Will Participate

Detailed plans have been completed for the celebration here Monday night of the fiftieth anniversary of the granting of the charter to the Knights of Pythias lodge, and several hundred persons from this section of the state are expected to be present for the Golden Jubilee.

The Pythian Sisters will participate in the ceremonies, and several of the grand officers will be here to make short talks. Two of the charter members, Samuel A. Glore of Indianapolis and Homer Gregg of Rushville are still living, and they will be guests of honor. There are also two fifty-year members living—Selman Webb and Oren Behr.

The lodge will open its ceremonies Monday night at 8 o'clock, and the regular business will be taken up first, which will include the installation of new officers, and grand vice chancellor, Elmer Bassett of Shelbyville, will act as grand chancellor and have a part in the installation services.

The lodge will be closed and the Pythian Sisters invited to participate in the ceremonies that are to follow.

The main address of the evening will be given by Mr. Bassett and other talks will be made by Carl R. Mitchell, grand keeper of record and seal; General William B. Gray of Covington, in command of the Indiana Brigade, U. S. K. P. and other distinguished guests.

Mr. Glore of Indianapolis, one of the charter members, will respond for the charter members and Selman Webb will respond for the 50-year members. Each of these talks will recall the early progress of the lodge and the struggles that were encountered in the early years.

Mrs. Josie Webb will also respond for the Pythian Sisters, and she will relate the growth of that order from 1890 to the present time.

Other notable persons in Pythianism who are expected here are Col. C. A. Phelps of Newcastle, who will bring a large delegation from Henry county; Frank Balymple of Knightstown, who is deputy grand chancellor for this district, and who will be accompanied by many Knightstown members; Adolph Biecard of Indianapolis, chief of the staff of General Gray; George E. Mullen, chairman of the grand lodge finance committee; C. R. Cameron of Indianapolis, member of the grand lodge judiciary of which Samuel L. Trabue of Rushville is chairman; Harry Wade of Indianapolis, president of the insurance department, and several others prominent in the state.

Lodges from Milroy, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Newcastle, Knightstown and Connersville have accepted invitations to attend, and a special effort has been made with the local membership to have a large attendance for the celebration.

Light refreshments will be served at the close of the evening's program, it has been announced.

FEDERALS SEEK SLAYERS OF VILLA

Mexican Government Troops Tramp

bara Searching For 7 Assassins

SHOT DOWN IN THE STREET

Mexican Robin Hood Slain While Driving Down Street In Machine
In Suburb Of Parral

By FREDRICK G. NEUMEIR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Mexico City, July 21.—Federal forces tramped through the hills in search of the seven assassins near Santa Barbara at dawn today who shot down Pancho Villa, the Mexican Robin Hood while he was driving his automobile down the street in a suburb of Parral.

With Villa, the famed outlaw of Mexico, dead, the government made every effort to trace his assailants and as daylight broke over the eastern crests federal troops again took up the intensive pursuit.

Immediately the news of the assassination reached here orders were sent to scour the countryside adjacent to the ambuscade in an endeavor to round up the guilty persons.

The body of Villa is lying in the City hall at Parral, where thousands of persons have viewed it. President Obregon has ordered an investigation into the assassination.

Maj. Gen. Eugenio Martinez at Chihuahua City has sent to Gen. Francisco Serrano, secretary of war an official report he received from Col. J. Felix Lara, commander of the garrison at Parral, in connection with the killing of the former noted rebel leader. The report follows:

"Villa, Trillo and three members of their escort were killed shortly before 8 o'clock this morning with premeditation while Villa and his companions were driving in an automobile, which Villa personally was piloting toward Guanajuato, a suburb of this city. The shots were fired by six or seven men posted in a house on the roadway.

"I immediately ordered an investigation in co-operation with the civil authorities. I have learned that these men, armed with 30-30 rifles, fled from the house on horseback in the direction of Santa Clara, through the hills.

"I had no cavalry and could not pursue them. The most I could do was to order the various detachments in this sector to be on the outlook for the assassins. The city authorities have ordered a detachment of rurales to begin pursuit."

Gen. Martinez reported that mili-

American Farm Bureau Federation Prepares Scheme to Boost The Price of Wheat

AVAILABLE IN CREDITS ACT

Chicago, July 21.—An American Farm Bureau Federation plan to increase wheat prices by withdrawing 200,000,000 bushels from the market was announced here today.

O. E. Bradfute, president of the federation, declared that the project necessitated about $150,000,000 credits to the farmers and this is available under the intermediate credits act passed by the last congress.

Grain taken off the market would be stored in farm bins which, Bradfute asserts may be designated as government bonded warehouses. The growers would borrow up to three fourths of the value of stored wheat to tide them over.

The wheat would be marketed in an "orderly" manner as needed for consumption. Bradfute characterized wheat less than $1 a bushel as a "national tragedy."

The project will be put into operation through farm bureaus in 46 states and 2,000 counties, the federation announced, adding that under the intermediate credits act, the secretary of agriculture has authority to direct farm bins as bonded warehouses.

Weekly Marketgram

(U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics).
Washington, D. C. July 21—(For week ending July 20, 1923).

HAY—Markets holding firm. Receipts new hay increasing but arrivals well absorbed account low stocks in cities. Best grades rather scarce and in excellent demand. New best prairie moving well. Quoted today: No. 1 timothy, Chicago $25; Memphis $24, Phila. $24.50, Pittsburgh, $22.50, Atlanta $27, Cincinnati $20, New York, $28.50; Minneapolis $18, No. 1 alfalfa, Chicago, $23, Memphis $22.50, Atlanta, $32, Cincinnati $20.50. No. 1 prairie, Chicago $20, Kansas City $16.50, Omaha $18, St. Louis $22, Minneapolis $17.

FEED—Wheatfeeds dull. Demand from interior very light resulting from good pasture in most sections. Recent advance of 50 cents to $1 per ton in cottonseed meal materially reduced demand. Increased offerings of new crop meal at rather heavy discounts. Corn feeds in ample supply at steady prices. Quoted July 20: Minneapolis, bran $19.50, middlings $23.50, flour middlings $28, rye middlings $23; gluten feed, Chicago $37.15; 36 percent cottonseed meal, Memphis $35.75, Atlanta $36.50; 32 percent linseed meal, Minneapolis $39, Buffalo $39; white hominy feed, St. Louis $31.50, Chicago $32.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Prices of watermelons holding about steady in city markets and at Georgia shipping points for the week, slightly weaker in Texas. Virginia

Irish cobbler potatoes $1.00 per bbl. lower prices of Ga. Belle peaches steady to firm and cantaloupes sell much higher.

Prices reported July 20—Tom Watson watermelons from Georgia and South Carolina 22-30 lb. average $250-$500 bulk per car consuming markets, $120-$375 fob cash track to growers. Texas stock $200-400 midwestern cities, 60¢-$1 bulk per 100 lbs. fob usual terms. Georgia Elberta peaches $2.50-$3.50 per 6 basket carrier, top of $4 in New York, $1.75-$2.25 fob. Belles $2-2.75 reaching $3.25 for large sizes in New York, $1.25-$1.50 fob. North Carolina cantaloupes greenmeats, stands 45¢ at Baltimore and Boston $2.25-$3. California and Arizona salmon tints, $4.50-$5.25 reaching $5.50 in Philadelphia. Irish cobbler potatoes from the eastern shore of Virginia and Maryland $4.50-$5.25 per bbl. city markets, top of $6 in Boston, $4.50 to $4.75 fob. Kansas early Ohio $1.25-$1.65 per 100 lbs. in Kansas City and Chicago, No. 1 stock $1.25 fob, shipping points.

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS—Chicago hog prices were unevenly 15¢ lower to 40¢ higher for the week. Beef steers 15 to 60¢ lower; butcher heifers 35¢ to $1.30 lower butcher cows 15 to 50¢ lower with feeders 10¢ off and veal calves 50 to 75¢ lower. Fat lambs were $1 to $1.75 lower and yearlings $1 lower. On July 20, hogs were active 10 to 15¢ lower at close, beef steers, yearlings and fat butcher cows and heifers very dull. Fat lambs steady to 50¢ lower, feeders strong to 25¢ higher with fat ewes steady.

July 20, Chicago prices: Hogs, top $7.50; bulk of sales $6.75 to $7.35; medium and good beef steers $7.60 to $10.65; butcher cows and heifers $3.50 to $10; feeder steers $4.50 to $8.40; light and medium weight veal calves $6.50 to $10.50; fat lambs $11.50 to $13.50; yearlings $8.25 to $12; fat ewes $3.50 to $7.

Stocker and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending July 13, were: Cattle and calves 38,706; hogs 8,275; sheep 36,312. In Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef was 50¢ to $1 lower for the week, veal $2 to $5 off, lamb $7 to $9, mutton $1 to $3 and pork loins $1 to $2 lower.

On July 20, beef at New York was weak to $1 lower and weak to 50¢ off at Boston. Veal and mutton $1 to $2 lower, lambs $1 to $3 off at New York. At Philadelphia, lamb was $1 to $2 lower and $1 to $4 lower at Boston.

July 20, prices good grade meats: beef $16 to $18.50; veal $15 to $19; lamb $19 to $23; mutton $14 to $16; light pork loins $18 to $20; heavy loins $12 to $16.

GRAIN—Decline in grain prices 14 and 16 was followed by steadiness on 17 and sharp advance 18th., and 19th., but weakness today carried values under week ago. Bearish influences early were holding sales, weakness in Winnipeg on good crop prospects and limited buying power while advance mainly due to somewhat oversold condition and claims of damage from Black rust in Canadian spring wheat territory.

Wheat unsettled on 20th, and averaged lower. There was a sharp rally one time to above yesterday's but prices declined again toward the last and finished near bottom. Less disposition to follow declines, however and fair support from commission houses on dips. Scattered liquidation in evidence on late declines with some selling by northwest interest. Corn prices followed wheat. Sentiment in corn mixed with increasing disposition to take selling side on bulges.

ture prices. Chicago Sept. wheat 98½; Chicago Sept. corn 76½; Minneapolis Sept. wheat $1.03½; Kansas City Sept. wheat 92½; Winnipeg Oct. wheat 97½.

COTTON—Spot cotton prices declined 24 points during the week. New York July future contracts declined 68 points.

Spot cotton closed at 26.21¢ per lb. New York July futures at 26.47¢. DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter markets were firm early in the week but later became unsettled and irregular with some price declines occurring. At the close today the tone was about steady. Hot weather defects have cut down the usual percentage of fancy grade, causing undergrades to accumulate in such amounts that at times they have been hard to move.

Closing prices 92 score butter: New York 39; Chicago 38; Phila 39½; Boston 39¢.

Cheese markets more active since trading became established generally on the same price basis as last week. Buyers operating more or less conservatively on account of increasing storage stocks, although there is some demand from those who had been off the market recently on account of anticipated declines.

Cheese prices at Wisconsin primary markets July 19: Flats 22½; wins 23½; double daisies 21½; Young Americas, Longhorns and square prints 22½.

New Type of Glider Is a Kite With Human Tail

A kite-type of air carrier has developed from experiments with the glider. Dr. Ing. Stehase, of Berlin, is shown carrying kite glider which he invented. It weighs only ten pounds. On the right, the parachute-like kite is shown in ascent with Dr. Stehase (arrow) trussed to a hanging rope like a human tail to the kite.

"WHITE ELEPHANTS" COSTING CONSUMERS

INVOLVED IN RATE CASE

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—"White elephants" supported by the Indianapolis Water company are costing consumers money, in the opinion of attorneys representing the public before the public service commission in the water rate case here. The third day of the hearing started this morning.

One of the most ponderous of these white elephants, attorneys try to show, is the canal south of the filter beds. Earl Carter, chief engineer for the public service commission, testified the canal south of the filter beds is worth $1,813,994. It is contended this section is not useful for utility purposes and that the public is asked to pay a return on this valuation unnecessarily.

Among "investments" listed by the water company were sums that the company probably would have to pay in damages for overflowing lands if it were to build its dams, which have been in for years, now. These figures totaled $280,000 in the valuation, and to this sum was added the usual 15 percent for "structural overhead." The company is asking that the consumers pay a return on this investment.

CONSIDER INCREASE IN FREIGHT RATES

If Interstate Commerce Commission Refuses To Reverse Decision Increase May Result

INCLUDES WESTERN RAILWAYS

By WILLIAM J. LOSH (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 21.—A general increase in freight rates on western railroads is considered probable if the interstate commerce commission refuse to reverse its recent decision in the western lumber rate case.

In a petition filed with the commission by western carriers seeking re-argument of the case, the roads contend that the decision which sets new maximum rates and awards shippers refunds on the difference between rates paid in the last five years and the new rates, establishes a dangerous precedent. If permitted to stand, the petition declares, the door is opened to all classes of shippers to bring long established rates in dispute, and if successful in getting them reduced, to obtain gigantic refunds from the railroad companies on the basis of the lumber rate decision.

Such an assault on their revenues would deplete their finances and require a general advancement of rates, the railroads declare.

TESTIFIES AGAINST SON

Chicago, July 21.—Testimony of Frank Channing, wealthy dairy man of Hampshire, Ill., against his son, Paul, aided Mrs. Martha Channing, the son's wife to obtain a divorce. The elder Channing told the court he had observed his son's activities on "many gay parties and automobile rides with other women."

STREET CAR STRIKE AVERTED

Chicago, July 21.—A street car strike in Chicago was averted today by compromise wage agreement giving employees an increase of 3 cents an hour. The agreement was affected by an arbitration committee. It calls for another advance of two cents an hour next year. The old wage was 70 cents.

STILL AND SUPPLIES CONFISCATED IN RAID

3 MILE NORTHWEST OF LAUREL

Laurel, Ind., July 21.—A posse of 35 members of the Laurel and Connersville branches of the horse thief detective association raided a moonshine plant Thursday afternoon on the Kiskaden farm, northwest of Laurel and near the Rush county line and confiscated one of the best-equipped stills which has ever been found in Franklin county. Twelve barrels of mash was destroyed and the whiskey manufacturing equipment was brought to Laurel by the officers. Prosecutor Elmer F. Bossert accompanied the raiders.

The raid was conducted Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock, the officers believing that the moonshiners would be working at that time. No one was found in the vicinity, however, when the officers arrived. Indications were that everything was in readiness for operation. A supply of kerosene, 100 pounds of sugar, several jugs and other supplies were found.

Officers who made the raid reported that the still was of about 50 gallons capacity, being especially constructed of copper. An automobile gasoline tank in a tree was used for the kerosene supply for the cooker. The still was located in a hollow a short distance from the old Allison school house, which was abandoned several years ago. The place is about three miles northwest of Laurel and a few rods south of the Fayette county line. The location of the still was known several days ago and members of the detective association have been watching the place. It is said that the identity of the moonshiners is known to the officers.

Members of the Laurel detective organization sent a request for assistance to Connersville about noon Thursday. The Connersville branch sent 15 men to aid in the raid.

AMUSEMENTS

Band Scores Hit At Princess

Earl Newberry and his band, which appeared Friday at the Princess, created favorable comment with all audiences, and the program today will be different. The musical program is given in addition to the regular picture program, and the entire offering is something unusual and will no doubt appeal to the Saturday patrons.

The band is directed by Earl Newberry, and there are sixteen pieces all blending harmoniously together, with many solo parts. The solo pieces are exceptionally good, and chief among them is Miss Singer, a cornetist.

The organization has played at many state fairs in the south, and is now making a brief tour of the north states, which accounts for the engagements here.

In the picture program today is a feature play, "Fools First" and another two reel serial of the Leather Pushers, featuring Denny Reginald.

One of the noteworthy features of "Western Justice"—an Arrow release—which is scheduled for presentation at the Mystic Theatre today, is the remarkable display of horsemanship therein. This is explained by the fact that the producers of the picture had at their service the most wonderful stable of blooded stock on the West Coast.

The picture was produced by A. B. Maescher, whose daughter, by birth a Westerner, has raised horses for a very long time. The Maescher horses have played a prominent part in many big picture productions in the past. In one particular picture she herself staged a thrilling ride. This was in "Man, Woman, Marriage," wherein one sequence showed an army of Amazons in action. The story called for a girl to deliver a message on horseback and the ride—an extraordinarily thrilling one—had to be photographed in its entirety to properly explain the development of the plot. Miss Maescher volunteered to make this ride herself, which offer Allen Holubar, the director, eagerly accepted. This ride still stands as one of the most daring examples of horsemanship ever recorded by the camera.

Many of Miss Maescher's finest animals, as has been said appear in Western Justice. All lovers of horse-flesh should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing so many splendid beasts in action.

Baptist Young People Union Hold Session At Connersville

Connersville, Ind., July 21.—A district meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union was held Thursday night at Roberts Park, 250 delegates being in attendance from Newcastle, Elkhorn, Richmond, Cambridge City, Rushville, Homer and the Connersville units. A pitch-in supper was served at the Kiwanis camp site, followed by a program in the pavilion, which was decorated and lighted for the occasion.

The Rev. U. S. Clatton, of Indianapolis, delivered an address on the subject "Young People's Work." Each delegation gave a special stunt. Miss Ida Arnold of this city presided at the meeting.

Another meeting will be held at Rushville in August in connection with the Baptist association convention.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine. We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

If your liver gets out of fix, take Black-Draught. It will help to drive the bile poisons and other unhealthy matters out of your system.

The Ohio concern, the suits alleged said that $300,000 of the $550,000 common capital stock of the International Note and Mortgage Company and 3,210 of the 3,410 shares of the common stock of the R. L. Dollings Company of Indiana are owned by the Ohio Corporation.

Mr. Fink, who filed the friendly suit for receiver in Indianapolis issued the following statement:

"Immediately upon hearing of the difficulties which have been brought upon the Dollings Company by the action of the thirteen stockholders in the Dollings Company of Ohio, I realized that my duty to my customers was to remain in my office so as to meet and talk with each of them who called either personally or by telephone.

"This I did, but on Wednesday of this week I determined to go to Indianapolis and personally look into conditions there. I spent the day in close consultation with the attorneys and officials of the Dollings Company and through my attorney, Howard S. Young, I applied for a receiver for the R. L. Dollings Company of Indiana, and also for International Note and Mortgage Company, of Indiana.

"I did this because I felt that it would be unwise to have the affairs of the Ohio Company jeopardize the interests of the customers in Indiana and because I believe that the best interests of all concerned would be subserved by this action.

Women the Greatest Buyers in the World

There are 22,000,000 homes in the United States. The women who buy for these homes spend on the average $500 each, or a total of eleven billion dollars, each year. That is more than $36,000,000 every working day. Every year it amounts to half as much as America's Liberty Bond issue.

Each woman is a part of this army of buyers, and each, if she will, may be guided to wise and economical purchases if she will but make up her mind each day to read as many as she can of the advertisements which manufacturers are printing for her benefit.

The advertising in every newspaper and every magazine is a buying guide for this greatest buying force in the world. This advertising makes it safe and easy for every member of this buying army to make her purchases.

It establishes in her mind a buying habit and gives her a preference of one brand of goods to another or an advertised article to one that is unknown.

It identifies for her a certain product as being standard, so that she may easily dodge the wiles of sellers who try to sell something that is not so good.

It fixes merit as an everlasting adjunct to certain articles.

It makes her know the manufacturer who is proud of his product and jealous of his reputation and character cannot do otherwise than make his product at least as good as he says it is.

More than likely it is better.

Advertising points out where this greatest buyer in all the world's history may find quality goods by showing her pictures of them over and over again which enables her to recognize them easily and quickly.

Development in Electric Industry

The relation of public utilities to the increase of population is brought out in statistics recently published by the bureau of the census in Washington.

In 1880 the population of the United States was 50,000,000; in 1920, four decades later, it was 105,000,000 an increase of 110 percent. In 1880, the entire capital invested in the electric light and power industry was less than one million dollars; it is now approximately $5,000,000 an increase of 500,000 percent. The annual gross return upon the investment is about $1,000,000, and 1,750,000 persons own the securities of the industry.

It is estimated that 8,500,000 homes in this country, out of a total of 22,500,000, are wired for electrical service, and that this service is at present available to 5,000,000 additional homes. In 1922, approximately 1,000,000 new homes were wired and equipped for the use of electrical energy, and it is expected that 4,000,000 additional homes will be wired within the next five years.

There are at present in the United States 287 cities of 25,000 or more each, with a combined population of 37,000,000, forty years ago it was 8,500,000.

This unparalleled growth was possible only because of the ability of the utilities to keep ahead of the growing demands upon them, says a bulletin of the New York state committee on public utility information reporting the figures. To house this increasing population towns and cities had to expand and build suburbs. Suburbs cannot exist without adequate transportation and telephone service. Houses are not habitable without electric wires and gas pipes; thus the electric railway, the electric light and power industry and the gas industry served the growing communities by anticipating and preparing themselves for demands for service in advance of the need of it.

This demand upon public utility service to keep ahead of the development of the community it serves, together with the increasing per capita use of gas, electric light and power, telephone and other utilities, has necessitated a constant inflow of capital for new plants and equipment.

Payrolls Mean Prosperity

We have all read in the papers how F. E. White, president of Armour & Company, started as a poor boy and worked his way to the top of one of America's great industrial organizations. The American people must learn that merely because business is big is no indication that it is undesirable. It must become more difficult for political hucksters to carry favor with their constituents by attacking business simply because it is big.

Mr. White spoke the truth in a recent address when he said: "It would seem that the relationship between business and the nation's prosperity is so apparent that only the feeble minded would fight business."

"There exists in our country a class of short-sighted and long-haired individuals who seem to feel that they were created especially to combat anything that savors of business, and the bigger the business the more zeal they show in fighting it."

"The short-sightedness of this policy is manifest in the increasing number of laws calculated to hamper individual and business progress and to prevent outstanding commercial success such as we call big business."

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21—There were 21,302 deaths in Indiana during the first six months of the present year, according to the report of statisticians for the state board of health.

This was an increase of 2,330 over the number of deaths for the corresponding period in 1922. Pneumonia caused 2,452 deaths, while tuberculosis was second with 1,486 deaths.

Births for the six months totaled 30,453.

Safety Sam's Sermonette

Th' bird who wrote "Consistency, you sure are a jewel," musta been thinkin' o' th' way people hold up their hands in horror when they see motorists fannin' by at a twenty mile clip an' then climb in a machine themselves an' creep up t' street car tracks, railroads, sharp turns an' other stoppin' places at about forty per; or mebbe he had in mind something about th' parents who cautions his young hopeful t' be sure t' stop an' look both ways b'fore goin' across streets an' then strolls careless like into th' way o' somebody's nice new car an' musses up one of its headlights and th' radiator, for no other reason than that he forgets th' streets are still bein' made race courses by busy souls who are afflicted with that awful affliction called "Horrible Hurry."

A Trick That Never Failed

Down near Moscow, along Flat-rock, where Rushville men used to go camping frequently, there is a waterfall in the river that is the marvel of anyone seeing it for the first time. Under the falls is an open space where a person can stand and not be seen by persons on the bank, whose view is obscured by the water.

It was a favorite trick of Tom Newkirk, so old campers relate, when a party was at the camp near the falls and strangers stopped to rest, to fall into the river, as if by accident, go under the water and get behind the falls out of sight of the people on the bank.

Persons not familiar with the cave behind the falls would soon become alarmed and others at the camp who knew the joke would dive into the water as if searching for Newkirk's body and run frantically up and down the bank, crying to him to come above the water.

The stunt was so good that it never failed to work.

Limitations

"While the government at Washington is so successful in limitin' things, like the're claimin' since the battleship-bustin' treaties was oked by the other countries," said the Street Corner Loafer to the Inquisitive Reporter today, "why don't some them there federal authorities try their hands at squeelching these cat-breakfast-in-New-York-and-dinner-in-San Francisco nuts."

"I see that the lieutenant who has tried it twice and failed wants to try it again. There aint no sense in lettin' a man make a fool of hisself even if he does belong to the army. Makin' a fool o' yourself and belongin' to the army aint one an' the same things by any means, but some of the men I been atalkin' to 'round the corner here are beginnin' to think so."

"But I'm gettin' off the subject. There's a spec a limitatin' goin on in this country that I don't just exactly 'prove of, and there's a whole lot that ought to be done that aint done."

"Fer instance, there's that new senator from Minnesota—Magwump Magnet or something like that—Johnson. He ought to be eliminated entirely, not just limited. I see by the papers that he submitted (I guess that's the right word, aint it?) to a interview and the reporter ast him about prohibition, immigration, bolshevism, Ford for president, a bonus fer soldiers, taxes, a world court, the league of nations an' the supreme court."

"I don't claim to be any bright man, but I aint been readin' the newspapers fer all these years and keepin' apace with the times fer nothin'. I know the difference between what's good for this country and what aint good fer it. And I know that this here man Johnson is wrong ever' time he opens his mouth. He got elected the wrong way, by demigogin' around, and he'll never get right."

"If he's right, I could be U. S. senator and make Lodge and Smoot an' all of them wish they was back in the ole home town. He says, fer instance, that they ought to be a unanimous vote of the U. S. supreme court to kill a act of congress 'stead of a majority vote. A blind pig could see as how that's wrong. Maybe we can't blame him 'cause he was born in Sweden er some place over there and was a glass blower an' never got over it, but if he'd read a little of the history of this here gran' and glorious country et he has adopted, he might learn somethin' I hope when ge gets to the U. S. senate and gets to spoutin' off about milkin' cows, et somebody gets up an' tells him et this is a country where the majority rules and et if we decide that a congress made up o' such poor simps as him can pass laws over the heads of a U. S. supreme court, we oughta never had the Boston tea party.

"I aint no fool if I have spent the best part of my life right here on this corner. I could tell that man a lot a things. Wonder how re'd like it if they'd pass a law providin' et no bill could become a law without a unanimous vote o' the senate. He wouldn't like it; I know them kind o' fellers. First thing yo' know, he'll be emulatin' the noble Henry Ford an' tryin' to prove that all history's bunk."

"The best thing he said in all that interview was that he didn't know anything about the world court, the league o' nations er scrappin' the navy. If he'd just said that he didn't know nothin' about anything, I'd had a lot more respect fer him As it is, 'cause he fooled a majority o' the people up in his home state, we're goin' have to endure him fer awhile, but sooner er later, his wind's goin' give out, like it did fer his illustrious predecessor from Californi."

LEONARD, TENDLER FINISH TRAINING

Battlers Who Will Contend For World's Lightweight Championship
To Rest Till Monday

LITTLE LOVE BETWEEN THEM

Falling Out Due To Tender Grabbing $5,000 Forfeit After Leonard Broke His Hand

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 21.—Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler who are to battle here Monday night for the world's lightweight championship
knocked off their training last night.
Leonard plans to return to his mother's apartment up in Harlem and Tendler will return to his home in Philadelphia to await the first official act of the program which comes with the weighing in at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

Some concern is being felt about
Leonard's ability to make the weight
but Billy Gibson, his manager, said
today that the champion was under 135 pounds now and that he would not fill out to much before the day of the fight.

Leonard, who makes good use of his talking machine, in and out of the ring has been directing verbal shots at the Philadelphia challenger from his training camp in the Cats-kills.

"I'll just play around with him for a while, and let him have it in the seventh round," the champion said.

There is no press agent stuff in the story that there is little love lost between Tendler and Leonard.
The falling out came when Tendler grabbed a $5,000 forfeit after Leonard had broken his hand and could not go through with a bout scheduled in Philadelphia some time back.
It is understood that Tendler returned the forfeit money recently.

All of the experts who have looked over the champion in training say that he seems to be in perfect condition. His two fights with Pinkey Mitchell and Alex Hart apparently got him back on edge after his hitch on the stage last winter.

Tendler, according to those who have seen the challenger, is also in good physical and mental fettle.
The Philadelphia southpaw claims that while Leonard may have found
fighting in their last meeting when Benny starts his monologue in the ring.

"I was talked out of that title once, and it will never happen again," Tendler said.

Going in For Sports

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 21.—Big business is beginning to realize the worth of sports.

A few years ago employers in the major factories and business houses looked upon sport merely as a recreation and took no hand. Now it is considered a part of the business.

Baseball grounds, athletic tracks,
football fields and tennis courts are being constructed by nearly every big plant, in the realization that such recreation may take the place of the old corner saloon. It increases the efficiency of the workers and holds
them to their jobs.

Perhaps the largest undertaking
of this kind has been launched by the Westinghouse Electric Company, which has organized what is known as "The Westinghouse Athletic Association. The company employs more than 30,000 persons and its monthly payroll averages over $4-250,000.

The organization pays for itself
from admissions, which are carefully handled by a board of directors.

Girls' activities are under a separate association. They play baseball, tennis and basketball. At present they have one baseball team, two basketball teams and have arranged

a tennis tournament.

Seven men baseball teams are formed into an inter-shop league where prizes are offered to the pennant winner and the team finishing in second place.

The success of the scheme indicates clearly that industrial athletics
have come to stay.

FOOTBALL MEN TO GO IN TRAINING

Camp Crowsley, Near North Webster, Will Be Meeting Place For
High School Players, Last of Month

IS FIRST IN THE STATE

Coaches Will Teach The Players
The Rudiments Of The Game And
Place Them In Midseason Form

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—
Camp Crowsley, on Lake Tippecanoe near North Webster, Ind., will be the gathering place of high school football players from all parts of Indiana from August 23 to Sept. 1.

It will be the first football training camp ever to be held in this state
for high school athletes.

H. C. Pettijohn of the Muncie
Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the camp. Pete Vaughan, coach of Wabash college, will train the prep school grid men. He will be assisted by Charles Logan and Fritz Aul, Wabash college players, N. M. Maddox, athletic director of the Y. M. C.
A., and Heze Clark, former Indiana
University player.

The training will give the youthful players an opportunity to learn the rudiments of football. Critics have pointed out that 95 percent of the injuries received by high school boys
in football are due to the fact that they have not learned how to handle themselves properly during the game.

Through the training camp, it is hoped to remove this objection, at least as far as Indiana high school football is concerned.

The boys will be put through a rigorous course of training, and will emerge from the camp in mid-season form. They will have a regular training table and smoking will be forbidden.

They will be given lectures on the rules of football, defense plays, and how to make the best use of their physical forces. Each day's program will include two practice periods.

ATHLETICS ARE FEATURED

H. A. Slutz Has Charge of Sports
Program at Winona Lake

Winona Lake, Ind., July 21.—Athletics are to be made one of the features of Winona Lake this summer. H. A. Slutz, director of athletics for the Huntington W. Va., public schools, has taken charge of the sports program and is making preparations for a tennis tournament.

Roque, quoits, swimming, golf and baseball will be featured. A baseball team is now being organized. Athletics from Winona Normal College will pursue a course in coaching under Don White, former Purdue University baseball captain.

Entries in the tennis tournament will include Parkhill, who won the tournament here last year and Mc-Neal, former Chicago city singles champion.

PENNSY VETERANS HOLD AN OUTING

More Than 8,000 Men And Their Families Attend All-Day Carnival At Coliseum Building

CONTESTS ON THE PROGRAM

Employees Of All Divisions In This Region Attend The Annual Event—Honor Badges Prepared

Indianapolis was host to 8,000
Pennsylvania Railroad veteran employees, members of their families and friends on the occasion of a big fellowship meeting and outing to be held there today. Large delegations of veterans of the St. Louis
division, South Bend division, Indianapolis division, Louisville division, Columbus division, Cincinnati division, Richmond division and Zanesville division, embracing the entire southwestern region, were to journey to Indianapolis to attend the meet, a gala event, which promised to be the largest ever staged west
of Philadelphia.

The day's program will begin at the Coliseum at Indianapolis at
1:30 P. M. Mayor Samuel Lewis
Shank will welcome the visitors and there will be speaking by high officials of the road, including General W. W. Atterbury, the honor
guest of the occasion.

A feature of the meeting will be a track laying contest by picked teams of Pennsylvania Railroad veterans from the Central Ohio and Indiana general division of that road.
An interesting athletic exhibition, including racing, boxing and other stunts is on the program. There will be singing of chorus selections,
including "America" and other familiar songs and special numbers
and renditions will be given by the Pennsylvania Railroad Glee Club and by an organization of Pennsyvania men known as the "Railroad Keystones". Badges of honor will be awarded to the retired veteran having the longest payroll record
as of July 1, 1923, to the veteran longest in service as of July 1 1923
and to the veteran youngest in years
of July 1 1925. In addition to the foregoing medals will also be presented the winners in the athletic and other contests to be staged and a prize banner will be awarded the Division Veterans Association having the largest percentage of veterans in attendance. General Manager I. W. Geer, will present the prizes to the winners.

Refreshments, including ice cream
lemonade, and coffee will be served
to the veterans free of charge.
Beautiful souvenir program books,
profusely illustrated, containing items of interest of every division represented, a sketch history of the Pennsylvania railroad, a list of officers and the names of all members of the various associations and many other interesting articles and items will be distributed free to each member attending the meet.

Special trains were operated for the convenience of veterans and their families and there was also special street car service for the guests upon arrival at Indianapolis.
A large delegation of veterans from this city and from points along the Louisville division headed by Geo.
W. Wetsel, journeyed to Indianapolis to attend the meet.

SMALL GAME IS ABUNDANT

Plenty Of Rabbits And Quail Available When Season Opens

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.— Hunting of small wild game and birds in Indiana the coming season will be exceptionally good because there is an unusual number of quail
and rabbits, according to George N.
Mannfeld, superintendent of fisheries and game for the state conservation department.

In a report to the commission
Mr. Mannfeld says that from every part of this state he receives the same report relative to quail. They are exceedingly plentiful. Squirrels too, are numerous, and also rabbits.

Prevalence of wild life in the state to such an unusual extent can be attributed to a better law observance. Mr. Mannfeld declares.
This he sums up in the statement that the public has a better understanding of why wild life must be protected in reproductive seasons
and are cooperating with the department, and that the activity of the wardens make many would-be violators desist for fear of arrest.

YATCHMEN READY FOR RACE

Scores of Experts Prepare for Annual Event on Lake Michigan

Chicago, July 21.—Scores of expert yachtsmen over-hauled their boats here today for the annual race to Mackinac, which starts late this afternoon.

Twenty trim and polished craft drifted at anchor in Chicago harbor while their crews tautened the rigging, tested the stays and made certain of the fit of the canvas.

Mayor William E. Dever will start the boats at 4 p. m. Intrepid was the favorite.

Thirteen-Year-Old Girl Pointed Out As Murderess

Elizabeth McDonald Told Police She Pushed Jimmy McDonald, 4 Years Old, Down Through a Hole in a Wharf Monday Afternoon and He Died Hanging Head Downward in the Water

By J. J. ROWLANDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Chelsea, Mass., July 21—A queer little girl with big blue black eyes sits in a room in the probation home here today staring vacantly at the wall while the house folks point her out to visitors as a murderess.

She is Elizabeth McDonald, 13 years old and the neighbors say she is just a poor little girl whose mind never had been quite right.

She is said to have told police—her big eyes open wide—that she pushed Jimmy McDonald, 4 years old, down through a hole in a wharf Monday afternoon. His feet caught in the rotten planking and he died hanging head downward in the water.

They say she pushed several other children into the water before but none of them drowned. The young McDonald baby, called "Sonny" by his playmates, was no relation to her. They were just playing together on the wharf when Betty shoved him down through the narrow hole.

Her mother is distracted. "She's just a poor little girl whose mind has never been quite right," she said.

Tears stream from her eyes and she choked as she talked. (Her name is Mrs. Louise L. McDonald).

"Her daddy died last November. They wanted to take Elizabeth away once but I couldn't let her go. Now I suppose I will lose her. She didn't mean anything. She didn't know what she was doing."

The boy's body was found floating in the water near the wharf Monday.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by investigators but a new broke was begun when the children of the neighborhood began whispering to their mothers. Elizabeth's detention followed.

In childish words she told how she, Sonny and several other children had been throwing stones in the water. She thought it would be fun if Sonny would jump in and make a big splash. He wouldn't do it and started to cry, and then, police say she admits, she picked him up.

"I pushed his head through the little hole," she declared. "I was going to push him all the way in, but his feet stuck and I couldn't get them loose."

"I didn't want him to die but the rest of them started to cry and I got scared. I ran away and I was too scared to tell my mother."

Because of her age, Elizabeth was not placed formally under arrest, but is being held under guard for arraignment in juvenile court next Thursday.

Dr. Francis Mahoney, city physician, who examined Elizabeth declared she was mentally subnormal. She has only the mental capacity of a child of seven years, he said.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD WORLD CONGRESS

Session Scheduled to Convene at Stockholm, Sweden, July 21-27—Last Meeting in 1912

750 AMERICANS TO ATTEND

Several Topics of Interest to Baptists as Well as Significant to World to be Considered

By DON Q. RIDDLE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Stockholm, Sweden, July 21—For the first time in eleven years, the Baptists of the world are to hold a world congress and this city has been selected as the place of meeting.

The congress is scheduled to convene here July 21-27. The last world meeting was held in Philadelphia in 1912. Plans were laid there for another world gathering in 1916, but this was cancelled because of the war, and post-war developments have made it unwise to hold another congress until this year.

Approximately 750 Americans are planning to be in Stockholm for the convention, many of whom sailed from New York June 30 on the United States liner "America," known as the "official ship." The "America" carried the largest party of any going from the United States, but several other groups, of 50 to 100 have been reported.

One of these was the Kungsholm sailing of June 20, when more than 100 delegates, mostly Swedish-Americans, embarked for Gothenburg. Another party of 60, most of whom were from Texas, sailed on the Berengaria June 26.

Thousands of delegates are expected from the United States, Canada, South America, Central Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, the Philippine Islands, China, Burma, India, as well as from Great Britain, Sweden, Norway and the countries of Continental Europe, including the new states of Latvia, Estonia, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Several topics of special interest to Baptists as well as significance to the world at large are scheduled for consideration. International peace, in which the League of Nations will doubtless be included, the need of help in Europe and relief work, and especially religious liberty and the separation of Church and State, will receive attention.

A special commission of which Dr. E. Y. Mullins of Louisville, Ky., is chairman will present a report formulating a pronouncement of Baptist fundamental principles and a restatement of the Baptist position. The late Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, for forty years pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in New York, who died February 23, 1923, was president of the Baptist World Alliance and was to have presided at the Stockholm meeting. A new presiding officer has not yet been appointed.

By special invitation of the Archbishop of Upsala, the congress will assemble for divine worship in the famous Cathedral on Sunday evening, July 22, where the sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. H. Shakespeare, D. D., of London.

Pleats or Ruffles

Pleats that go up and down make for slenderness. They are meant for the five-foot-four or under. Ruffles that go round and round cut one's height.

LIP-STICK ON PEARL NECKLACE LATEST IN PARIS

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)
New York, N. Y., July 21—The poke hat continues its reign in Paris although several millinery designers are sponsoring the new "scuttle" hat, which differs slightly from the poke. Its crown is higher than the crown of the average poke and its brim is very narrow. All hats continue to keep the short back effect Panne and Lyonvelvet are the favorite fabrics used for early Fall models and brown and green are the leading hat shades. There is a shade of deep wine that is also used a great deal.

Feathers of all sorts from barnyard fowl to ostrich will be used this coming season and it is predicted that the ostrich in all its variations will be seen on sport hats as well as on dress hats. Vari-colored feathers and feather-fancies spotted with metal are shown in quantities. Pompoms, wheel effects, and tassels of burnt ostrich trim many tailored shapes. Ribbon still holds its popularity as a trimming.

Just now the Parisians are wearing little straight-lined suits with short pinstriped jackets.

Choker necklaces, popular with the Parisians, are matched by earrings, bracelets and accessories of like color. Cornelian and crystal are the most popular of the semi-precious stones used. Glass beads in such colors as ruby red, onyx blue, sapphire and jade green are quite as popular as the more costly stones.

The lip-stick pendant which hangs on a long pearl necklace is the latest accessory from Paris. One can not lose one's lip-stick if it is tied about one's neck and the Parisian believes in having her lip-stick ever ready. Not only does she keep her lips a crimson hue, but she never feels that she is completely groomed until she has put a bit of color on her chin and on the lobes of her ears.

Colored voile handkerchiefs are more popular than those of silk or linen in Paris at present. It is said that voile is less crushable than either linen or silk and that it washes well and is extremely soft. Monograms in cut-out and embroidered effects are the favorite trimmings. Printed effects on handkerchiefs are no longer seen.

Matching the undergarments with the outer garments is the latest vogue of the Parisian. Frocks of navy blue have slips and two-piece sets of navy crepe de chene to match them. The undergarment, however, need not match exactly the shade of the frock, providing it belongs to the same color family. A brown frock may have lingerie of tan, cinnamon or any cousin of the brown family.

So she tries to be just a little different from the run of women who fill the subways and offices—women who spend a large sum for one dress and wear it until it is completely worn out before buying another. She buys clothes that are on sale because they are not exactly what women are wearing—just a trifle off the mode. Then she alters them so that they will be becoming to her particular style, always adding some little touch that is decidedly new. She is a perpetual remodeler. Her gowns undergo many changes before they are cast aside.

Her husband never knows when he leaves her in the morning what she will be wearing at night. She has a hat for every day in the week—old hats that have been held over from year to year and refreshed with new bows, ribbons and dyes.

I once heard a gentleman say that a wife was a bride as long as she kept fresh ribbons in her garments and I believe that is some sense to this theory. "Men may not chase after street cars after they have caught them" but it keeps a woman running nowadays to hold her husband's attention!

Asked Annulment Before Ink on The License Dried

Terre Haute, Ind., July 21—The wheels of the gods may grind slowly, but the machinery of the divorce court must run at a faster speed to keep up with the times, the clerk of the superior court mused as he looked over his records at closing time the other evening.

A suit just filed showed that a girl had been married in Paris, Ill., the day before, and then, before the ink on the marriage license had hardly had time to dry, she appeared in court to ask that the marriage be annulled.

She gave as the reason the fact that she had changed her mind and decided she was still too young to assume the responsibilities and obligations of matrimony.

Longevity Village Product

Center, July 21—There must be something in the balmy breezes and sunshine of this little village—or perhaps it's some secret spring that furnishes the elixir of life.

Longevity seems to be the chief product of the village.

Old residents claim there are more octogenarians here than in any town of its size in the state, if not in the United States.

Among those answering roll call of four score years are: Daniel Thomas, Mrs. James Hercules, Mrs. Fanny Moore, Fewel Alley, Mrs. John Kob, and Levi Springer, who is ranking resident. He is 85. Levi, as the other members of the octogenarians know him, is a veteran of the civil war. He served with the 89th Indiana volunteer infantry.

Boy Scouts Show Big Gain

New York, July 21—Announcement has just been made by Chief Scout Executive James E. West, of a gain of 80,294 Boy Scouts since December 31, 1921, as a result of the nation-wide membership roundup. There are more Boy Scouts and officials in the United States than in all other countries combined, the total in the United States being 612,911.

President Harding is awarding silk parade flag streamers to local councils and troops that make a 25 percent gain in the roundup, sending the streamers with a special letter over his signature. Hundreds of these streamers have already been received and ceremoniously placed on the flags.

Tested The Gas Jet

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21—William Dushane believes today there must have been some slight leak in the connection for a gas jet he made in his father's home.

William stood on the dining room table and tested the jet for leaks. He made the test with lighted matches.

William was blown eight feet. Half the plaster was knocked off the ceiling.

MICHIGAN ROAD PART OF SYSTEM

One Of Oldest Highways In State Is Taken Over By The Indiana Highway Commission

BEING PUT IN CONDITION

Will Be Maintained As Gravel Road For Present And Paved To Shelbyville In 1924

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—Inducted into the state highway system on July 3 and in so rough a condition that automotive traffic over it was both expensive and very unpleasant, approximately sixty miles of the Michigan road between the Marion county line and Logansport is now in fine shape due to state highway maintenance, according to John D. Williams, state roads director.

Though the commission took over the road from Indianapolis to Logansport, maintenance is only in force between Logansport and the Marion county line because the Marion county commissioners have contracted to pave the road from the City of Indianapolis to the county line.

Maintenance on the road started as soon as the road became a part of the state highway system. Numerous graders were put to work and the road smoothed and levelled. Mr. Williams and members of the commission have just completed inspecting the road and pronounce it in excellent condition and asks the public to inspect it.

The Michigan road is one of the oldest and probably best known in Indiana. Starting at Madison down on the Ohio river, it routes northwest through Versailles, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Indianapolis, Michigantown, Kirklint, Logansport, Rochester and South Bend to the Michigan line.

The section of some sixty miles just taken into the system will be maintained as a gravel road for the present. Under the commission's building program it is planned to pave the road from New Bethel to Shelbyville in 1924, which will complete a hard surface road between the Shelby county capitol and Indianapolis.

Members of the commission feel also that the Michigan road will always serve to relieve traffic congestion on No. 1 and also on the Lebanon - Indianapolis, Lafayette road providing one is going to the extreme north port of the state. Again it opens up additional territory to traveling salesmen and business interests by placing several towns on an excellent highway.

BACK ACHED TERRIBLY

Mrs. Robinson Tells How She Found Relief By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Amarillo, Texas.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so that it would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years; then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."—Mrs. C. B. ROBINSON, 608 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Tex.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful times, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It is surely worth your trial.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

DOLLINGS OFFICE HERE WILL CLOSE

District Branch Of Indiana Concern
Will Cease To Do Business Since

SUIT IS A FRIENDLY ACTION

Filed By Hancock County Represent-
Interests Of Its Customers

The district offices of the R. L. Dollings company of Indiana in this city will be closed in a very few days, following the appointment of Bert McBride, former Rush county man receiver for the Indiana corporation and the International Note and Mortgage company, a subsidiary in Indianapolis it was announced today by Wallace Morgan, district manager.

Mr. Morgan said that he did not care to make any specific statement regarding the receivership, which is a friendly action, until he had received word from the receiver as to what action to take, but that the district office here would be closed because the R. L. Dollings company will cease to do business.

Mr. Morgan reiterated the statement made at the local office the first of this week, that the receivership would not jeopardize the stock of any of the industrial concerns which have been financed by the Dollings company. He asserted that every company financed by the Dollings Company paid dividends July 1 and that they were sound at that time.

The district manager explained that the receivership of the Indiana branch of the Dollings company was a friendly action filed by Herbert E. Fink, of Greenfield, representative of the company in Hancock county and that the receiver is president of the Continental National bank, where the Dollings company of Indiana did business.

These steps were taken, it is explained, so that the assets of the company would be in friendly hands and the interests of the stockholders would be conserved as much as possible.

Mr. Morgan stated that very little of the Dollings company stock proper had been sold in Rush county, but that most of the investments by Rush county people had been in concerns financed by the Dollings company, which are not affected by the receivership action.

The allegation that the R. L. Dollings company of Ohio, majority owner of the stock of the two Indiana concerns, is involved in receivership proceedings was the basis for the request for a receiver for the Indiana company. The Ohio

Judge Sparks Will Hold Adjourned
Session For Convenience Of At-

CRANLEY TO BE ARRAIGNED

Circuit court will hold a one day session on Monday, which has been designated as the adjourned session of the May term, as Judge Sparks set aside this day when the term officially closed June 30.

The one day session was provided to take care of any minor court procedure that might come up and which will relieve the heavy strain on the opening of the fall term. Many probate cases will be taken care of on Monday.

No regular court cases will be heard, as the day was set aside for the convenience of attorneys who had papers to file on cases that are pending, and in several matters an issue is pending that might be taken up and disposed of on that day.

James Cranley, who is in jail on a charge of transporting liquor, will be arraigned on the charge, it is understood. Prosecutor Ketchum filed some affidavits in the criminal stated that he would also probably court, and as there are some bench warrants that have not been served from recent grand jury indictments, they might also be served on Monday, if the defendants can be located.

Grace Burris Of Laurel Commits
Suicide In Cincinnati Hospital

Miss Grace Burris, 22 years old, daughter of Jesse Burris of the Wesley Chapel neighborhood, near Laurel, who committed suicide in Cincinnati Thursday evening, was well known in Rushville and southern Rush county. She was taking a nurse training course in a hospital in that city and would have completed her course in February.

The deceased left a note in which she made directions for her funeral services and burial. The note of her suicide is said to have been a lover's quarrel, in which her sweetheart made it known to her that he was engaged to another girl. She took poison and died a few hours afterwards.

COMPANY C IS A SATISFIED LOT

Rush County Guardsmen Hope To Make Showing Equal To That Of

Second Week Will Be Spent At Camp
Knox, Ky.—Men Will Be Awarded Medals For Work

Camp, Knox, Kentucky, July 20.—Company "C" of the 151st Infantry, National Guard unit from Rushville, Indiana arrived here Sunday evening about dusk for a fifteen day intensive training period. This organization commanded by Capt. W. B. Brann, assisted by Lieutenants Kinney and Hardwick made an enviable record here during the summer encampment last year and is expected to make an equal showing during the present period. Company "C" was considered second best in the regiment, holding highest honors for first Battalion.

The personnel of Company "C" is considered very good and is a satisfied lot. The mess is very good, being prepared by experienced cooks and supervised by men with forethought. Meats and vegetables constitute the greater part of the meals but at the present time the odor of apple pie comes from the kitchen. Ice cream and cake will add an extra touch to the evening meals. The men are quartered comfortably in barracks, during the first week of training, which are inspected regularly and are kept in a sanitary condition. The bathing facilities are much improved and after drill every man in the organization is seen under the shower, taking advantage of the opportunity to keep his body clean and in condition to perform the duties assigned to him.

The mornings of the first week are spent in training with the rifle in musketry, close order drill, school of the squad, platoon and company. In the afternoon lectures are given the men by officers of the company and by officers assigned for this purpose. The second week will be spent on the range where the organization will do preliminary firing in preparation for record firing. Men of the company will be awarded medals for their qualification in the different classes on the last Saturday in camp.

96-Acre Field of Wheat Averages 26 Bushels to Acre

Another remarkable wheat yield has been reported by the Ball and Orme grain elevator, in which a 96-acre field on the Mrs. Boone Power farm yielded 26 bushels to the acre. The farm is tenanted by Joe Shockley. The wheat graded number 2, and there was no trace of smut in which a 96-acre field on the threshing machine that did the work, also set a record, as it went through 1020 bushels without a single stop, which is considered as something unusual for a piece of machinery.

London, July 21.—Contents of the British note to Germany were carefully guarded today to give France and Belgium time to study their drafts of the document and express approval, if they wish, before the note is delivered in Berlin.

Unofficially, it is said that the document is firm in tone, and suggests that Germany cease passive resistance and begin to think about paying up, but all such forecasts are unauthorized.

Drafts of the note, with a covering letter, were handed to France and Belgium last night. An early reply from the allies was requested.

The count de St. Aulaire, French ambassador to the court of St. James, hurried immediately to Paris to confer with Premier Poincare.

It was learned that the draft of the British note sent to Paris last night reached the Quai d'Orsay at noon. A covering letter requested the French not to publish the contents yet.

Paris, July 21.—Absolute silence regarding the terms of the British note and French reaction thereto was commanded by Premier Poincare as, with several of his ministers, he commenced study of the document. A special courier delivered the note at noon.

"DODGE" INCOME TAX

St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—Fifteen hundred Missouri firms have "dodged" their income tax returns for the year 1922, according to John T. Waddill, agent of the state tax commission, here checking St. Louis firms. Half of these firms are in St. Louis, Waddill said. Over $500,000 in delinquent taxes could be uncovered if an adequate force were available to check up these firms, Waddill declared.

"The Shepherd of The Hills" To Be Given At Rush County Chautauqua

SCENES FROM "THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS".

There is no more popular play upon the American platform than this beautiful and homelike story of Ozark mountain life, adapted from the book by that name by Harold Bell Wright. The story is presented by a company of eight experienced artists. They have had the advantage of several seasons' experience on the Chautauqua platform, as well as the training given in the famous Wales Studios. The company will give this play at 7:30 August 9th. In the afternoon they will give the play "Revenge". This will make two splendid programs on the same day by this company. It will be one of the big days of the Chautauqua. The price of admission will be 50c on that day for adults and 25c for children, each admission into the grounds. Get a season ticket and attend the whole session, is the advice of chautauqua boosters.

MRS. SALLIE MOORE DIES AT AGE OF 87

Native Resident Of Rush County
Experiences Friday Afternoon
Born At Milroy

FUNERAL MONDAY, 9:30 A. M.

Mrs. Sallie Moore, age 87 years, a native of Rush county, expired Friday afternoon about four o'clock at her home, 306 West Tenth street, death being caused from complications arising with advanced age, and following poor health for several years.

The deceased was born near Milroy, and had resided in the county ever since. She would have been 88 years old in September. Her husband, Sanford Moore, preceded her in death 45 years ago, and since his death she made her home with her son, John S. Moore.

Besides the son, a step-daughter, Mrs. C. C. Goodell of Chicago, also survives. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services for the deceased will be conducted Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the late residence, in charge of the Rev. J. W. Walker, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Glen Downey, Rushville boy, who was sentenced in the Rush circuit court September 15, 1921, on a charge of vehicle taking, and who is now serving a three to five year sentence at the reformatory, has been denied his plea for clemency by Governor McCray. The local boy has been transferred to Pendleton, where the construction work for the new state reformatory is being pushed.

The governor granted 24 petitions for paroles, and in the list of refusing paroles, are 41 cases, in which the name of the local boy appears.

Grand Officers Coming For 50th Anniversary Of Granting Of Charter
To K. Of P. Lodge

Pythian Sisters, Two Charter Members And Fifty-Year Members
Will Participate

Detailed plans have been completed for the celebration here Monday night of the fiftieth anniversary of the granting of the charter to the Knights of Pythias lodge, and several hundred persons from this section of the state are expected to be present for the Golden Jubilee.

The Pythian Sisters will participate in the ceremonies, and several of the grand officers will be here to make short talks. Two of the charter members, Samuel A. Gore of Indianapolis and Homer Gregg of Rushville are still living, and they will be guests of honor. There are also two fifty-year members living—Selman Webb and Oren Behr.

The lodge will open its ceremonies Monday night at 8 o'clock, and the regular business will be taken up first, which will include the installation of new officers, and grand vice chancellor, Elmer Bassett of Shelbyville, will act as grand chancellor and have a part in the installation services.

The lodge will be closed and the Pythian Sisters invited to participate in the ceremonies that are to follow.

The main address of the evening will be given by Mr. Bassett and other talks will be made by Carl R. Mitchell, grand keeper of record and seal; General William B. Gray of Covington, in command of the Indiana Brigade, U. R. K. P. and other distinguished guests.

Mr. Gore of Indianapolis, one of the charter members, will respond for the charter members and Selman Webb will respond for the 50-year members. Each of these talks will recall the early progress of the lodge and the struggles that were encountered in the early years.

Mrs. Josie Webb will also respond for the Pythian Sisters, and she will relate the growth of that order from 1890 to the present time.

Other notable persons in Pythianism who are expected here are Col. C. A. Phelps of Newcastle, who will bring a large delegation from Henry county; Frank Balymple of Knightstown, who is deputy grand chancellor for this district, and who will be accompanied by many Knightstown members; Adolph Biard of Indianapolis, chief of the staff of General Gray; George E. Mullen, chairman of the grand lodge finance committee; C. R. Cameron of Indianapolis, member of the grand lodge judiciary of which Samuel L. Trabue of Rushville is chairman; Harry Wade of Indianapolis, president of the insurance department, and several others prominent in the state.

Lodges from Milroy, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Newcastle, Knightstown and Connersville have accepted invitations to attend, and a special effort has been made with the local membership to have a large attendance for the celebration.

Light refreshments will be served at the close of the evening's program, it has been announced.

FEDERALS SEEK SLAYERS OF VILLA

Through Hills Near Santa Barbara Searching For 7 Assassins

Mexican Robin Hood Slain While
Driving Down Street In Machine
In Suburb Of Parral

By FREDRICK G. NEUMEIR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Mexico City, July 21.—Federal forces tramped through the hills in search of the seven assassins near Santa Barbara at dawn today who shot down Pancho Villa, the Mexican Robin Hood while he was driving his automobile down the street in a suburb of Parral.

With Villa, the famed outlaw of Mexico, dead, the government made every effort to trace his assailants and as daylight broke over the eastern crests federal troops again took up the intensive pursuit.

Immediately the news of the assassination reached here orders were sent to scour the countryside adjacent to the ambush in an endeavor to round up the guilty persons.

The body of Villa is lying in the City hall at Parral, where thousands of persons have viewed it. President Obregon has ordered an investigation into the assassination.

Maj. Gen. Engenio Martinez at Chihuahua City has sent to Gen. Francisco Serrano, secretary of war an official report he received from Col. J. Felix Lara, commander of the garrison at Parral, in connection with the killing of the former noted rebel leader. The report follows:

"Villa, Trillo and three members of their escort were killed shortly before 8 o'clock this morning with premeditation while Villa and his companions were driving in an automobile, which Villa personally was piloting toward Guanajuato, a suburb of this city. The shots were fired by six or seven men posted in a house on the roadway.

"I immediately ordered an investigation in co-operation with the civil authorities. I have learned that these men, armed with 30-30 rifles, fled from the house on horseback in the direction of Santa Clara, through the hills.

"I had no cavalry and could not pursue them. The most I could do was to order the various detachments in this sector to be on the outlook for the assassins. The city authorities have ordered a detachment of rurales to begin pursuit."

Gen. Martinez reported that military forces are continuing the search.

American Farm Bureau Federation
Prepares Scheme to Boost The Price of Wheat

AVAILABLE IN CREDITS ACT

Chicago, July 21.—An American Farm Bureau Federation plan to increase wheat prices by withdrawing 200,000,000 bushels from the market was announced here today.

O. E. Bradfute, president of the federation, declared that the project necessitated about $150,000,000 credits to the farmers and this is available under the intermediate credits act passed by the last congress.

Grain taken off the market would be stored in farm bins which, Bradfute asserts may be designated as government bonded warehouses. The growers would borrow up to three fourths of the value of stored wheat to tide them over.

The wheat would be marketed in an "orderly" manner as needed for consumption, Bradfute characterized wheat less than $1 a bushel as a "national tragedy."

The project will be put into operation through farm bureaus in 46 states and 2,000 counties, the federation announced, adding that under the intermediate credits act, the secretary of agriculture has authority to direct farm bins as bonded warehouses.

Weekly Marketgram

(U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics). Washington, D. C. July 21—(For week ending July 20, 1923).

HAY—Markets holding firm. Receipts new hay increasing but arrivals well absorbed account low stocks in cities. Best grades rather scarce and in excellent demand. New best prairie moving well. Quoted today: No. 1 timothy, Chicago $25; Memphis $24, Phila. $24.50, Pittsburgh, $22.50, Atlanta $27, Cincinnati $20, New York, $28.50; Minneapolis $18, No. 1 alfalfa, Chicago, $23, Memphis $22.50, Atlanta, $32, Cincinnati $20.50. No. 1 prairie, Chicago $20, Kansas City $16.50, Omaha $18, St. Louis $22, Minneapolis $17.

FEED—Wheatfeeds dull. Demand from interior very light resulting from good pasture in most sections. Recent advance of 50 cents to $1 per ton in cottonseed meal materially reduced demand. Increased offerings of new crop meal at rather heavy discounts. Corn feeds in ample supply at steady prices. Quoted July 20: Minneapolis, bran $19.50, middlings $23.50, flour middlings $28, rye middlings $23; platen feed, Chicago $37.15; 36 percent cottonseed meal, Memphis $35.75, Atlanta $36.50; 32 percent linseed meal, Minneapolis $39, Buffalo $39; white hominy feed, St. Louis $31.50, Chicago $32.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Prices of watermelons holding about steady in city markets and at Georgia shipping points for the week, slightly weaker in Texas. Virginia

Texas stock $200-400 midwestern cities, 60c-$1 bulk per 100 lbs. fob usual terms. Georgia Elberta peaches $2.50-$3.50 per 6 basket carrier, top of $4 in New York, $1.75-$2.25 fob. Belles $2-2.75 reaching $3.25 for large sizes in New York, $1.25-$1.50 fob. North Carolina cantaloupes greenmeats, stands 45c at Baltimore and Boston $2.25-$3. California and Arizona salmon tints, $4.50-$5.25 reaching $5.50 in Philadelphia. Irish cobbler potatoes from the eastern shore of Virginia and Maryland $4.50-$5.25 per bbl. city markets, top of $6 in Boston, $4.50 to $4.75 fob. Kansas early Ohio $1.25-$1.65 per 100 lbs. in Kansas City and Chicago, No. 1 stock $1.25 fob. shipping points.

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS—Chicago hog prices were unevenly 15c lower to 40c higher for the week. Beef steers 15 to 60c lower; butcher heifers 35c to $1.30 lower butcher cows 15 to 50c lower with feeders 10c off and veal calves 50 to 75c lower. Fat lambs were $1 to $1.75 lower and yearlings $1 lower. On July 20, hogs were active 10 to 15c lower at close, beef steers, yearlings and fat butcher cows and heifers very dull. Fat lambs steady to 50c lower, feeders strong to 25c higher with fat ewes steady.

July 20, Chicago prices: Hogs, top $7.50; bulk of sales $6.75 to $7.35; medium and good beef steers $7.60 to $10.65; butcher cows and heifers $3.50 to $10; feeder steers $4.50 to $8.40; light and medium weight veal calves $6.50 to $10.50; fat lambs $11.50 to $13.50; yearlings $8.25 to $12; fat ewes $3.50 to $7.

Stock and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending July 13, were: Cattle and calves 38,700; hogs 8,275; sheep 36,312.

In Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef was 50c to $1 lower for the week, veal $2 to $5 off, lamb $7 to $9, mutton $1 to $3 and pork loins $1 to $2 lower.

On July 20, beef at New York was weak to $1 lower and weak to 50c off at Boston. Veal and mutton $1 to $2 lower, lamb $1 to $3 off at New York. At Philadelphia, lamb was $1 to $3 lower and $1 to $4 lower at Boston.

July 20, prices good grade meats: beef $16 to $18.50; veal $15 to $19; lamb $19 to $23; mutton $14 to $16; light pork loins $18 to $20; heavy loins $12 to $16.

GRAIN—Decline in grain prices 14 and 16 was followed by steadiness on 17 and sharp advance 18th, and 19th, but weakness today carried values under week ago. Bearish influences early were holding sales, weakness in Winnipeg on good crop prospects and limited buying power while advance mainly due to somewhat oversold condition and claims of damage from Black rust in Canadian spring wheat territory.

Wheat unsettled on 20th, and averaged lower. There was a sharp rally one time to above yesterday's but prices declined again toward the last and finished near bottom. Less disposition to follow declines, however and fair support from commission houses on dips. Scattered liquidation in evidence on late decline with some selling by northwest interest. Corn prices followed wheat. Sentiment in corn mixed with increasing disposition to take selling side on bulges.

Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.02; No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.02; No. 2 mixed corn $86; No. 2 yellow corn 89c; No. 3 white oats 43c. Average farm prices: No. 2 mixed corn in Central Iowa 73c; No. 2 hard winter wheat in Central Kansas 78c; No. 1 dark northern wheat in Central North Dakota 85c. Closing future prices. Chicago Sept. wheat 98c; Chicago Sept. corn 76c; Minneapolis Sept. wheat $1.03; Kansas City Sept. wheat 92c; Winnipeg Oct. wheat 97c.

COTTON—Spot cotton prices declined 24 points during the week. New York July future contracts declined 68 points.

Spot cotton closed at 26.2c per lb. New York July futures at 26.47c.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter markets were firm early in the week but later became unsettled and irregular with some price declines occurring. At the close today the tone was about steady. Hot weather defects have cut down the usual percentage of fancy grade, causing undergrades to accumulate in such amounts that at times they have been hard to note.

Closing prices 92 score butter: New York 39; Chicago 38; Phila 39; Boston 39c.

Cheese markets more active since trading became established generally on the same price basis as last week. Buyers operating more or less conservatively on account of increasing storage stocks, although there is some demand from those who had been off the market recently on account of anticipated declines.

Cheese prices at Wisconsin primary markets July 19: Platts 22c; wins 23c; double daisies 21c; Young Americans, Longhorns and square prints 22c.

"WHITE ELEPHANTS"

COSTING CONSUMERS

INVOLVED IN RATE CASE

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—"White elephants" supported by the Indianapolis Water company are costing consumers money, in the opinion of attorneys representing the public before the public service commission in the water rate case here. The third day of the hearing started this morning.

One of the most ponderous of these white elephants, attorneys try to show, is the canal south of the filter beds. Earl Carter, chief engineer for the public service commission, testified the canal south of the filter beds is worth $1,813,994. It is contended this section is not useful for utility purposes and that the public is asked to pay a return on this valuation unnecessarily.

Among "investments" listed by the water company were sums that the company probably would have to pay in damages for overflowing lands if it were to build its dams, which have been in for years, now. These figures totaled $280,000 in the valuation, and to this sum was added the usual 15 percent for "structural overhead." The company is asking that the consumers pay a return on this investment.

CONSIDER INCREASE IN FREIGHT RATES

By WILLIAM J. LOSH (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 21.—A general increase in freight rates on western railroads is considered probable if the interstate commerce commission refuse to reverse its recent decision in the western lumber rate case.

In a petition filed with the commission by western carriers seeking re-argument of the case, the roads contend that the decision which sets new maximum rates and awards shippers refunds on the difference between rates paid in the last five years and the new rates, establishes a dangerous precedent.

If permitted to stand, the petition declares, the door is opened to all classes of shippers to bring long established rates in dispute, and if successful in getting them reduced, to obtain gigantic refunds from the railroad companies on the basis of the lumber rate decision.

Such an assault on their revenues would deplete their finances and require a general advancement of rates, the railroads declare.

Chicago, July 21.—Testimony of Frank Channing, wealthy dairy man of Hampshire, Ill., against his son, Paul, aided Mrs. Martha Channing, the son's wife to obtain a divorce. The elder Channing told the court he had observed his son's activities on "many gay parties and automobile rides with other women."

STREET CAR STRIKE AVERTED

Chicago, July 21.—A street car strike in Chicago was averted today by compromise wage agreement giving employees an increase of 3 cents an hour. The agreement was affected by an arbitration committee. It calls for another advance of two cents an hour next year. The old wage was 70 cents.

STILL AND SUPPLIES

CONFISCATED IN RAID

3 MILE NORTHWEST OF LAUREL

Laurel, Ind., July 21.—A posse of 35 members of the Laurel and Connersville branches of the horse thief detective association raided a moonshine plant Thursday afternoon on the Kiskaden farm, northwest of Laurel and near the Rush county line and confiscated one of the best-equipped stills which has ever been found in Franklin county. Twelve barrels of mash was destroyed and the whiskey manufacturing equipment was brought to Laurel by the officers. Prosecutor Elmer F. Bossert accompanied the raiders.

The raid was conducted Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock, the officers believing that the moonshiners would be working at that time. No one was found in the vicinity, however, when the officers arrived. Indications were that everything was in readiness for operation. A supply of kerosene, 100 pounds of sugar, several jugs and other supplies were found.

Officers who made the raid reported that the still was of about 50 gallons capacity, being especially constructed of copper. An automobile gas-oil tank in a tree was used for the kerosene supply for the cooker. The still was located in a hollow a short distance from the old Allison school house, which was abandoned several years ago. The place is about three miles northwest of Laurel and a few rods south of the Fayette county line. The location of the still was known several days ago and members of the detective association have been watching the place. It is said that the identity of the moonshiners is known to the officers.

Members of the Laurel detective organization sent a request for assistance to Connersville about noon Thursday. The Connersville branch sent 15 men to aid in the raid.

AMUSEMENTS

Band Scores Hit At Princess

Earl Newberry and his band, which appeared Friday at the Princess, created favorable comment with all audiences, and the program today will be different. The musical program is given in addition to the regular picture program, and the entire offering is something unusual and will no doubt appeal to the Saturday patrons.

The band is directed by Earl Newberry, and there are sixteen pieces all blending harmoniously together, with many solo parts. The solo pieces are exceptionally good, and chief among them is Miss Singer, a cornetist.

The organization has played at many state fairs in the south, and is now making a brief tour of the north states, which accounts for the engagements here.

One of the noteworthy features of "Western Justice"—an Arrow release—which is scheduled for presentation at the Mystic Theatre today, is the remarkable display of horsemanship therein. This is explained by the fact that the producers of the picture had at their service the most wonderful stable of blooded stock on the West Coast.

The picture was produced by A. B. Maescher, whose daughter, by birth a Westerner, has raised horses for a very long time. The Maescher horses have played a prominent part in many big picture productions in the past. In one particular picture she herself staged a thrilling ride. This was in "Man, Woman, Marriage," wherein one sequence showed an army of Amazons in action. The story called for a girl to deliver a message on horseback and the ride—an extraordinarily thrilling one—had to be photographed in its entirety to properly explain the development of the plot. Miss Maescher volunteered to make this ride herself, which offer Allen Holubar, the director, eagerly accepted. This ride still stands as one of the most daring examples of horsemanship ever recorded by the camera.

Many of Miss Maescher's finest animals, as has been said appear in Western Justice. All lovers of horse-flesh should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing so many splendid beasts in action.

LOCAL DELEGATES ATTEND

Baptist Young People Union Hold Session At Connersville

Connersville, Ind., July 21.—A district meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union was held Thursday night at Roberts Park, 250 delegates being in attendance from Newcastle, Elkhorn, Richmond, Cambridge City, Rushville, Homer and the Connersville units. A picnic supper was served at the Kiwanis camp site, followed by a program in the pavilion, which was decorated and lighted for the occasion.

The Rev. U. S. Clutton, of Indianapolis, delivered an address on the subject "Young People's Work." Each delegation gave a special stunt. Miss Ida Arnold of this city presided at the meeting.

Another meeting will be held at Rushville in August in connection with the Baptist association convention.

ARLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Woods and son of Rushville visited at the home of John Woods Sunday.

Leroy Moore has returned home from Newcastle where he had his eyes treated.

Mrs. P. A. Phillips has returned home from a visit with her daughter in Columbus.

Mrs. Cora Gordon received a message a few days ago stating that the only child of her brother, Donald Inlow, had died.

A new furniture store has been installed in Mrs. Rebecca Sampson's business room.

EATS NO FOOD 38 DAYS

St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—After abstaining from food for 38 consecutive days, in an attempt to starve himself to death, Newton J. Bishop, 60, was in a serious condition at the city hospital here today. Bishop told police he had locked himself in his room and went without food when he became despondent over continued ill health. Neighbors told police he had not left the room for over a month until carried out on a stretcher last night. He will live.

Theodore's Black-Draught Liver Medicine (Vegetable) Praised by the Head of a Louisiana Family.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the flu by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine. We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

company was placed in the hands of a receiver Friday.

The Ohio concern, the suits alleged said that $300,000 of the $550,000 common capital stock of the International Note and Mortgage Company and 3,210 of the 3,410 shares of the common stock of the R. L. Dollings Company of Indiana are owned by the Ohio Corporation.

Mr. Fink, who filed the friendly suit for receiver in Indianapolis issued the following statement:

"Immediately upon hearing of the difficulties which have been brought upon the Dollings Company by the action of the thirteen stockholders in the Dollings Company of Ohio, I realized that my duty to my customers was to remain in my office so as to meet and talk with each of them who called either personally or by telephone.

"This I did, but on Wednesday of this week I determined to go to Indianapolis and personally look into conditions there. I spent the day in close consultation with the attorneys and officials of the Dollings Company and through my attorney, Howard S. Young, I applied for a receiver for the R. L. Dollings Company of Indiana, and also for International Note and Mortgage Company, of Indiana.

"I did this because I felt that it would be unwise to have the affairs of the Ohio Company jeopardize the interests of the customers in Indiana and because I believe that the best interests of all concerned would be subserved by this action.

TWO AVIATORS KILLED

Rantoul, Ill., July 21.—Lieut. Edward Kinney, Chicago, and Lieut. Harold McNab, Decatur, Illinois, were killed at Rantoul flying field Friday in an airplane fall. The plane came out of a tail spin several thousand feet above the field, when observers noticed that it went into a nose dive and shot straight down to earth. Both officers were attending the air service reserve officers training camp.

Women the Greatest Buyers in the World

There are 22,000,000 homes in the United States. The women who buy for these homes spend on the average $500 each, or a total of eleven billion dollars, each year. That is more than $36,000,000 every working day. Every year it amounts to half as much as America's Liberty Bond issue.

Each woman is a part of this army of buyers, and each, if she will, may be guided to wise and economical purchases if she will but make up her mind each day to read as many as she can of the advertisements which manufacturers are printing for her benefit.

The advertising in every newspaper and every magazine is a buying guide for this greatest buying force in the world. This advertising makes it safe and easy for every member of this buying army to make her purchases.

It establishes in her mind a buying habit and gives her a preference of one brand of goods to another or an advertised article to one that is unknown.

It identifies for her a certain product as being standard, so that she may easily dodge the wiles of sellers who try to sell something that is not so good.

It fixes merit as an everlasting adjunct to certain articles.

It makes her know the manufacturer who is proud of his product and jealous of his reputation and character cannot do otherwise than make his product at least as good as he says it is.

More than likely it is better.

Advertising points out where this greatest buyer in all the world's history may find quality goods by showing her pictures of them over and over again which enables her to recognize them easily and quickly.

IT PROFITETH NOTHING.
Though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.—1 Corinthians 13: 3.

Development in Electric Industry

The relation of public utilities to the increase of population is brought out in statistics recently published by the bureau of the census in Washington.

In 1880 the population of the United States was 50,000,000; in 1920, four decades later, it was 105,000,000 an increase of 110 percent. In 1880, the entire capital invested in the electric light and power industry was less than one million dollars; it is now approximately $5,000,000 an increase of 500,000 percent. The annual gross return upon the investment is about $1,000,000, and 1,750,000 persons own the securities of the industry.

It is estimated that 8,500,000 homes in this country, out of a total of 22,500,000, are wired for electrical service, and that this service is at present available to 5,000,000 additional homes. In 1922, approximately 1,000,000 new homes were wired and equipped for the use of electrical energy, and it is expected that 4,000,000 additional homes will be wired within the next five years.

There are at present in the United States 287 cities of 25,000 or more each, with a combined population of 37,000,000, forty years ago it was 8,500,000.

This unparalleled growth was possible only because of the ability of the utilities to keep ahead of the growing demands upon them, says a bulletin of the New York state committee on public utility information reporting the figures. To house this increasing population towns and cities had to expand and build suburbs. Suburbs cannot exist without adequate transportation and telephone service. Houses are not habitable without electric wires and gas pipes; thus the electric railway, the electric light and power industry and the gas industry served the growing communities by anticipating and preparing themselves for demands for service in advance of the need of it.

This demand upon public utility service to keep ahead of the development of the community it serves, together with the increasing per capita use of gas, electric light and power, telephone and other utilities, has necessitated a constant inflow of capital for new plants and equipment.

Payrolls Mean Prosperity

We have all read in the papers how F. E. White, president of Armour & Company, started as a poor boy and worked his way to the top of one of America's great industrial organizations. The American people must learn that merely because business is big is no indication that it is undesirable. It must become more difficult for political hucksters to carry favor with their constituents by attacking business simply because it is big.

Mr. White spoke the truth in a recent address when he said: "It would seem that the relationship between business and the nation's prosperity is so apparent that only the feeble minded would fight business." "There exists in our country a class of short-sighted and long-haired individuals who seem to feel that they were created especially to combat anything that savors of business, and the bigger the business the more zeal they show in fighting it."

"The short-sightedness of this policy is manifest in the increasing number of laws calculated to hamper individual and business progress and to prevent outstanding commercial success such as we call big business."

Births Exceed Deaths

Indianapolis, Ind. July 21—There were 21,302 deaths in Indiana during the first six months of the present year, according to the report of statisticians for the state board of health.

This was an increase of 2,330 over the number of deaths for the corresponding period in 1922. Pneumonia caused 2,452 deaths, while tuberculosis was second with 1,486 deaths.

Births for the six months totaled 30,453.

NOTEBOOK

Being Random Observations Picked Up During the Week by the Inquisitive Reporter in His Rounds About Town.

A Trick That Never Failed

Down near Moscow, along Flat-rock, where Rushville men used to go camping frequently, there is a waterfall in the river that is the marvel of anyone seeing it for the first time. Under the falls is an open space where a person can stand and not be seen by persons on the bank, whose view is obscured by the water.

It was a favorite trick of Tom Newkirk, so old campers relate, when a party was at the camp near the falls and strangers stopped to rest, to fall into the river, as if by accident, go under the water and get behind the falls out of sight of the people on the bank.

Persons not familiar with the cave behind the falls would soon become alarmed and others at the camp who knew the joke would dive into the water as if searching for Newkirk's body and run frantically up and down the bank, crying to him to come above the water.

The stunt was so good that it never failed to work.

Limitations

"While the government of Washington is so successful in limitin' things, like the're claimin' since the battle-ship-bustin' treaties was oked by the other countries," said the Street Corner Loufer to the Inquisitive Reporter today, "why don't some them there federal authorities try their hands at squeelching these cat-break-fast-in-New-York-and-dinner-in-San-Francisco nuts."

"I see that the lieut. who has tried it twice and failed wants to try it again. There aint no sense in lettin' a man make a fool of himself even if he does belong to the army. Makin' a fool o' yourself and belongin' to the army aint one an' the same things by any means, but some of the men I been atalkin' to 'round the corner here are beginnin' to think so.

"But I'm gettin' off the subject. There's a spec a limitatin' goin on in this country that I don't just exactly 'prove of, and there's a whole lot that ought to be done that aint done.

"For instance, there's that new senator from Minnesota—Magwump Magnet or something like that—Johnson. He ought to be eliminated entirely, not just limited. I see by the papers that he submitted (I guess that's the right word, aint it?) to an interview and the reporter ast him about prohibition, immigration, bolshevism, Ford for president, a bonus fer soldiers, taxes, a world court, the league of nations an' the supreme court.

"I don't claim to be any bright man, but I aint been readin' the newspapers fer all these years and keepin' apace with the times fer nothin'. I know the difference between what's good for this country and what aint good fer it. And I know that this here man Johnson is wrong ever time he opens his mouth. He got elected the wrong way, by demigogin' around, and he'll never get right.

"If he's right, I could be U. S. senator and make Lodge and Smoot an' all of them wish they was back in the ole home town. He says, fer instance, that they ought to be a unanimous vote of the U. S. supreme court to kill a act of congress 'stead of a majority vote. A blind

big could see as how that's wrong. Maybe we can't blame him 'cause he was born in Sweden or some place over there and was a glass blower an' never got over it, but if he'd read a little of the history of this here gran' and glorious country et he has adopted, he might learn somethin' I hope when ge' gets to the U. S. senate and gets to spoutin' off about milkin' cows, et somebody gets up an' tells him et this is a country where the majority rules and et if we decide that a congress made up o' such poor simps as him can pass laws over the heads of a U. S. supreme court, we oughta never had the Boston tea party. et'kut ggee

"I aint no fool if I have spent the best part of my life right here on this corner. I could tell that man a lot a things. Wonder how re'd like it if they'd pass a law providin' et no bill could become a law without a unanimous vote o' the senate. He wouldn't like it; I know them kind o' fellers. First thing yo' know, he'll be emulatin' the noble Henry Ford an' tryin' to prove that all history's bunk.

"The best thing he said in all that interview was that he didn't know anything about the world court, the league o' nations er scraippin' the navy. If he'd just said that he didn't know nothin' about anything, I'd had a lote more respect fer him As it is, 'cause he fooled a majority of the people up in his home state, we're goin' have to endure him fer a while, but sooner er later, his wind's goin' give out, like it did fer his illustrious predecessor from California."

Battlers Who Will Contend For World's Lightweight Championship To Rest Till Monday

LITTLE LOVE BETWEEN THEM

Falling Out Due To Tender Grabbing $5,000 Forfeit After Leon-
ard Broke His Hand

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 21.—Benny Leonard and Lew Tandler, who are to battle here Monday night for the world's lightweight championship,
knocked off their training last night.
Leonard plans to return to his mother's apartment up in Harlem
and Tandler will return to his home in Philadelphia to await the first official act of the program which comes with the weighing in at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

Some concern is being felt about
Leonard's ability to make the weight,
but Billy Gibson, his manager, said
today that the champion was under 135 pounds now and that he would not fill out to much before the day of the fight.

Leonard, who makes good use of his talking machine, in and out of
the ring has been directing verbal
shots at the Philadelphia challenger
from his training camp in the Cats-
kills.

"I'll just play around with him
for a while, and let him have it in the seventh round," the champion
said.

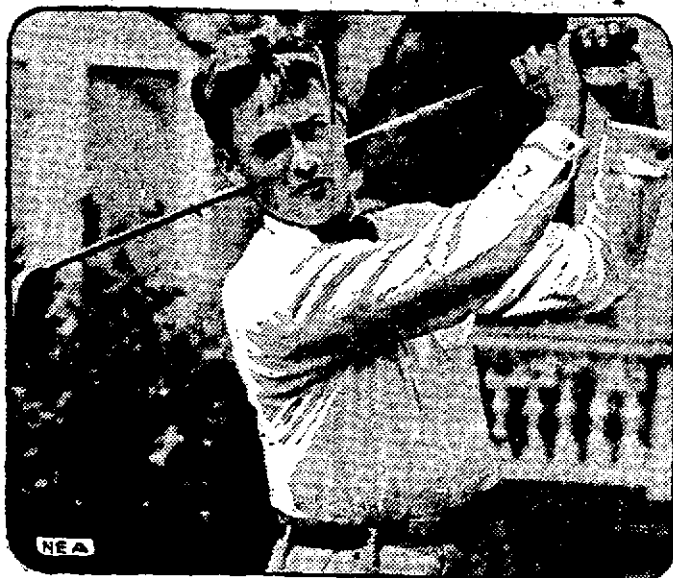

There is no press agent stuff in
the story that there is little love
lost between Tandler and Leonard.
The falling out came when Tandler grabbed a $5,000 forfeit after Leonard had broken his hand and could not go through with a bout scheduled in Philadelphia some time back.
It is understood that Tandler returned the forfeit money recently.

All of the experts who have looked over the champion in training say that he seems to be in per-
Pinkey Mitchell and Alex Hart apparently got him back on edge after
his hitch on the stage last winter.

Tandler, according to those who have seen the challenger, is also in
good physical and mental fettle.
The Philadelphia southpaw claims
fighting in their last meeting when Benny starts his monologue in the ring.

"I was talked out of that title
once, and it will never happen again," Tandler said.

Going in For Sports

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 21.—Big business is beginning to realize the worth of sports.

A few years ago employers in the major factories and business houses
looked upon sport merely as a recreation and took no hand. Now it is considered a part of the business.
Baseball grounds, athletic tracks,
football fields and tennis courts are
being constructed by nearly every
big plant, in the realization that such recreation may take the place of the old corner saloon. It increases the efficiency of the workers and holds
them to their jobs.

Perhaps the largest undertaking
of this kind has been launched by
the Westinghouse Electric Company,
which has organized what is known as "The Westinghouse Athletic Association." The company employs more than 30,000 persons and its monthly payroll averages over $4, 250,000.

The organization pays for itself
from admissions, which are carefully
handled by a board of directors.

Girls' activities are under a separate association. They play baseball,

tennis and basketball. At present
they have one baseball team, two basketball teams and have arranged
a tennis tournament.

Seven men baseball teams are formed into an inter-bop league
where prizes are offered to the pennant winner and the team finishing
in second place.

The success of the scheme indicates clearly that industrial athletics
have come to stay.

FOOTBALL MEN TO GO IN TRAINING

Camp Crowsley, Near North Webster, Will Be Meeting Place For

IS FIRST IN THE STATE

Coaches Will Teach The Players
The Rudiments Of The Game And
Place Them In Midseason Form

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—
Camp Crowsley, on Lake Tippe-
canoe near North Webster, Ind.,
will be the gathering place of high school football players from all parts of Indiana from August 23 to Sept. 1.

It will be the first football training
camp ever to be held in this state
for high school athletes.

H. C. Pettijohn of the Muncie
Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the camp. Pete Vaughan, coach of Wabash college, will train the prep school grid men. He will be assisted by Charles Logan and Fritz Aul, Wabash college players, N. M. Maddox, athletic director of the Y. M. C.
A., and Heze Clark, former Indiana
University player.

The training will give the youthful players an opportunity to learn the rudiments of football. Critics have pointed out that 95 percent of the injuries received by high school boys
in football are due to the fact that they have not learned how to handle themselves properly during the game.

Through the training camp, it is hoped to remove this objection, at least as far as Indiana high school football is concerned.

The boys will be put through a rigorous course of training, and will emerge from the camp in mid-season form. They will have a regular training table and smoking will
be forbidden.

They will be given lectures on the rules of football, defense plays, and how to make the best use of their physical forces. Each day's program will include two practice periods.

H. A. Slutz Has Charge of Sports

Winona Lake, Ind., July 21.—Athletics are to be made one of the features of Winona Lake this summer. H. A. Slutz, director of athletics
for the Huntington W. Va., public schools, has taken charge of the sports program and is making preparations for a tennis tournament.
Rogue, quoits, swimming, golf and baseball will be featured. A baseball team is now being organized. Athletics from Winona Normal College will pursue a course in coaching under Don White, former Purdue University baseball captain.
Entries in the tennis tournament
will include Parkhill, who won the tournament here last year and Mc-Neal, former Chicago city singles
champion.

PENSY VETERANS
HOLD AN OUTING

More Than 8,000 Men And Their Families Attend All-Day Campaign At Coliseum Building

Employees Of All Divisions In This
Event—Honor Badges Prepared

Indianapolis was host to 8,000
Pennsylvania Railroad veteran employees, members of their families
and friends on the occasion of a big fellowship meeting and outing to be held there today. Large delegations of veterans of the St. Louis
division, South Bend division, Indianapolis division, Louisville division, Columbus division, Cincinnati
division, Richmond division and Zanesville division, embracing the entire southwestern region, were to journey to Indianapolis to attend the
meet, a gala event, which promised
to be the largest ever staged west
of Philadelphia.

The day's program will begin at the Coliseum at Indianapolis at
1:30 P. M. Mayor Samuel Lewis
Shank will welcome the visitors and
there will be speaking by high officials of the road, including General W. W. Atterbury, the honor
guest of the occasion.

A feature of the meeting will be a track laying contest by picked
teams of Pennsylvania Railroad veterans from the Central Ohio and Indiana general division of that road.

An interesting athletic exhibition, including racing, boxing and other stunts is on the program. There will be singing of chorus selections,
including "America" and other familiar songs and special numbers
and renditions will be given by the Pennsylvania Railroad Glee Club
and by an organization of Pennsylvania men known as the "Railroad Keystones". Badges of honor will be awarded to the retired veteran
having the longest payroll record
as of July 1, 1923, to the veteran
longest in service as of July 1 1923
and to the veteran youngest in years
of July 1 1925. In addition to the foregoing medals will also be presented the winners in the athletic
and other contests to be staged and
a prize banner will be awarded the Division Veterans Association having the largest percentage of veterans in attendance. General Manager I. W. Geer, will present the prizes to the winners.

Refreshments, including ice cream
lemonade, and coffee will be served
to the veterans free of charge.
Beautiful souvenir program books,
profusely illustrated, containing
items of interest of every division
represented, a sketch history of the Pennsylvania railroad, a list of officers and the names of all members of the various associations and many other interesting articles and
member attending the meet.

Special trains were operated
for the convenience of veterans and
special street car service for the guests upon arrival at Indianapolis.
A large delegation of veterans from
this city and from points along the Louisville division headed by Geo.
W. Wetsel, journeyed to Indianapolis to attend the meet.

SMALL GAME IS ABUNDANT

Plenty Of Rabbits And Quail Available Where Season Opens

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—
Hunting of small wild game and birds in Indiana the coming season
will be exceptionally good because there is an unusual number of quail
and rabbits, according to George N.
Mannfeld, superintendent of fisheries and game for the state conservation department.

In a report to the commission
Mr. Mannfeld says that from every part of this state he receives the same report relative to quail. They are exceedingly plentiful. Squirrels too, are numerous, and also rabbits.

Prevalence of wild life in the state to such an unusual extent can
be attributed to a better law observance. Mr. Mannfeld declares.
This he sums up in the statement that the public has a better understanding of why wild life must be protected in reproductive seasons
and are cooperating with the department, and that the activity of

Thirteen-Year-Old Girl Pointed Out As Murderess

Elizabeth McDonald Told Police She Pushed Jimmy McDonald, 4 Years Old, Down Through a Hole in a Wharf Monday Afternoon and He Died Hanging Head Downward in the Water

By J. J. ROWLANDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chelsea, Mass., July 21—A queer little girl with big blue black eyes sits in a room in the probation home here today staring vacantly at the wall while the house folks point her out to visitors as a murderess.

She is Elizabeth McDonald, 13 years old and the neighbors say she is just a poor little girl whose mind never had been quite right.

She is said to have told police—her big eyes open wide—that she pushed Jimmy McDonald, 4 years old, down through a hole in a wharf Monday afternoon. His feet caught in the rotten planking and he died hanging head downward in the water.

They say she pushed several other children into the water before but none of them drowned. The young McDonald baby, called "Sonny" by his playmates, was no relation to her. They were just playing together on the wharf when Betty shoved him down through the narrow hole.

Her mother is distracted. "She's just a poor little girl whose mind has never been quite right," she said.

Tears streams from her eyes and she choked as she talked. (Her name is Mrs. Louise L. McDonald.)

"Her daddy died last November. They wanted to take Elizabeth away once but I couldn't let her go. Now I suppose I will lose her. She didn't mean anything. She didn't know what she was doing."

The boy's body was found floating in the water near the wharf Monday.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by investigators but a new broke was begun when the children of the neighborhood began whispering to their mothers. Elizabeth's detention followed.

In childish words she told how she, Sonny and several other children had been throwing stones in the water. She thought it would be fun if Sonny would jump in and make a big splash. He wouldn't do it and started to cry, and then, police say she admits, she picked him up.

"I pushed his head through the little hole," she declared. "I was going to push him all the way in, but his feet stuck and I couldn't get them loose."

"I didn't want him to die but the rest of them started to cry and I got scared. I ran away and I was too scared to tell my mother."

Because of her age, Elizabeth was not placed formally under arrest, but is being held under guard for arraignment in juvenile court next Thursday.

Dr. Francis Mahoney, city physician, who examined Elizabeth declared she was mentally subnormal. She has only the mental capacity of a child of seven years, he said.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD WORLD CONGRESS

Session Scheduled to Convene at Stockholm, Sweden, July 21-27—Last Meeting in 1912

750 AMERICANS TO ATTEND

Several Topics of Interest to Baptist as Well as Significant to World to be Considered

By DON Q. RIDDLE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Stockholm, Sweden, July 21—For the first time in eleven years, the Baptists of the world are to hold a world congress and this city has been selected as the place of meeting.

The congress is scheduled to convene here July 21-27. The last world meeting was held in Philadelphia in 1912. Plans were laid there for another world gathering in 1916, but this was cancelled because of the war, and post-war developments have made it unwise to hold another congress until this year.

Approximately 750 Americans are planning to be in Stockholm for the convention, many of whom sailed from New York June 30 on the United States liner "America," known as the "official ship." The "America" carried the largest party of any going from the United States, but several other groups, of 50 to 100 have been reported.

One of these was the Kingsholm sailing of June 20, when more than 100 delegates, mostly Swedish-Americans, embarked for Gothenburg. Another party of 60, most of whom were from Texas, sailed on the Bengaria June 26.

Thousands of delegates are expected from the United States, Canada, South America, Central Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, the Philippine Islands, China, Burma, India, as well as from Great Britain, Sweden, Norway and the countries of Continental Europe, including the new states of Latvia, Estonia, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Several topics of special interest to Baptist as well as significance to the world at large are scheduled for consideration. International peace, in which the League of Nations will doubtless be included, the need of help in Europe and relief work, and especially religious liberty and the separation of Church and State, will receive attention.

A special commission of which Dr. E. Y. Mullins of Louisville, Ky., is chairman will present a report formulating a pronouncement of Baptist fundamental principles and a restatement of the Baptist position.

The late Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, for forty years pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in New York, who died February 23, 1923, was president of the Baptist World Alliance and was to have presided at the Stockholm meeting. A new presiding officer has not yet been appointed.

By special invitation of the Archbishop of Upsala, the congress will assemble for divine worship in the famous Cathedral on Sunday evening, July 22, where the sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. H. Shakespeare, D. D., of London.

LIP-STICK ON PEARL NECKLACE LATEST IN PARIS

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)

New York, N. Y., July 21—The poke hat continues its reign in Paris although several millinery designers are sponsoring the new "scuttle" hat, which differs slightly from the poke. Its crown is higher than the crown of the average poke and its brim is very narrow. All hats continue to keep the short back effect. Panne and Lyonvelvet are the favorite fabrics used for early fall models and brown and green are the leading hat shades. There is a shade of deep wine that is also used a great deal.

Feathers of all sorts from barnyard fowl to ostrich will be used this coming season and it is predicted that the ostrich in all its variations will be seen on sport hats as well as on dress hats. Vari-colored feathers and feather-fancies spotted with metal are shown in quantities. Pompoms, wheel effects, and tassels of burnt ostrich trim many tailored shapes. Ribbon still holds its popularity as a trimming.

Choker, necklaces, as popular with the Parisians, are matched by earrings, bracelets and accessories of like color. Cornelian and crystal are the most popular of the semi-precious stones used. Glass beads in such colors as ruby red, onyx blue, sapphire and jade green are quite as popular as the more costly stones.

The lip-stick pendant which hangs on a long pearl necklace is the latest accessory from Paris. One can not lose one's lip-stick if it is tied about one's neck and the Parisian believes in having her lip-stick ever ready. Not only does she keep her lips a crimson hue, but she never feels that she is completely groomed until she has put a bit of color on her chin and on the lobes of her ears.

Colored voile handkerchiefs are more popular than those of silk or linen in Paris at present. It is said that voile is less crushable than either linen or silk and that it washes well and is extremely soft. Monograms in cut-out and embroidered effects are the favorite trimming. Printed effects on handkerchiefs are no longer seen.

Matching the undergarments with the outer garments is the latest vogue of the Parisian. Frocks of navy blue have slips and two-piece sets of navy crepe de chene to match them. The undergarment, however, need not match exactly the shade of the frock, providing it belongs to the same color family. A brown frock may have lingerie of tan, cinnamon or any cousin of the brown family.

So she tries to be just a little different from the run of women who fill the subways and offices—women who spend a large sum for one dress and wear it until it is completely worn out before buying another. She buys clothes that are on sale because they are not exactly what women are wearing—just a trifle off the mode. Then she alters them so that they will be becoming to her particular style, always adding some little touch that is decidedly new. She is a perpetual remodeler. Her gowns undergo many changes before they are cast aside.

Her husband never knows when he leaves her in the morning what she will be wearing at night. She has a hat for every day in the week—old hats that have been held over from year to year and refreshed with new bows, ribbons and dyes.

I once heard a gentleman say that a wife was a bride as long as she kept fresh ribbons in her garments and I believe that is some sense to this theory. "Men may not chase after street cars after they have caught them" but it keeps a woman running nowadays to hold her husband's attention!

Asked Annulment Before Ink on The License Dried

Terre Haute, Ind., July 21—The wheels of the gods may grind slowly, but the machinery of the divorce court must run at a faster speed to keep up with the times, the clerk of the superior court mused as he looked over his records at closing time the other evening.

A suit just filed showed that a girl had been married in Paris, Ill., the day before, and then, before the ink on the marriage license had hardly had time to dry, she appeared in court to ask that the marriage be annulled.

She gave as the reason the fact that she had changed her mind and decided she was still too young to assume the responsibilities and obligations of matrimony.

Longevity Village Product

Center, July 21—There must be something in the balmy breezes and sunshine of this little village—or perhaps it's some secret spring that furnishes the elixir of life.

Longevity seems to be the chief product of the village.

Old residents claim there are more octogenarians here than in any town of its size in the state, if not in the United States.

Among those answering roll call of four score years are: Daniel Thomas, Mrs. James Hercules, Mrs. Panny Moore, Fewel Alley, Mrs. John Kob, and Levi Springer, who is ranking resident. He is 85, Levi, as the other members of the octogenarians know him, is a veteran of the civil war. He served with the 89th Indiana volunteer infantry.

Boy Scouts Show Big Gain

New York, July 21—Announcement has just been made by Chief Scout Executive James E. West, of a gain of 89,204 Boy Scouts since December 31, 1921, as a result of the nation-wide membership roundup. There are more Boy Scouts and officials in the United States than in all other countries combined, the total in the United States being 612,911.

President Harding is awarding silk parade flag streamers to local councils and troops that make a 25 per cent gain in the roundup, sending the streamers with a special letter over his signature. Hundreds of these streamers have already been received and ceremoniously placed on the flags.

Tested The Gas Jet

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21—William Dushane believes today there must have been some slight leak in the connection for a gas jet he made in his father's home.

William stood on the dining room table and tested the jet for leaks. He made the test with lighted matches. William was blown eight feet. Half the plaster was knocked off the ceiling.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE

Winona Lake, Ind., July 21—A Young Women's Christian Association industrial conference is in progress here with delegates from Indiana and several other states in attendance. The conference will last ten days.

Bluffton—The floral emblem of Bluffton will be the iris, the Chamber of Commerce decided.

MICHIGAN ROAD PART OF SYSTEM

One Of Oldest Highways In State Is Taken Over By The Indiana Highway Commission

Will Be Maintained As Gravel Road For Present And Paved To Shelbyville In 1924

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—Inducted into the state highway system on July 3 and in so rough a condition that automotive traffic over it was both expensive and very unpleasant, approximately sixty miles of the Michigan road between the Marion county line and Logansport is now in fine shape due to state highway maintenance, according to John D. Williams, state roads director.

Though the commission took over the road from Indianapolis to Logansport, maintenance is only in force between Logansport and the Marion county line because the Marion county commissioners have contracted to pave the road from the City of Indianapolis to the county line.

Maintenance on the road started as soon as the road became a part of the state highway system. Numerous graders were put to work and the road smoothed and levelled. Mr. Williams and members of the commission have just completed inspecting the road and pronounce it in excellent condition and asks the public to inspect it.

The Michigan road is one of the oldest and probably best known in Indiana. Starting at Madison down on the Ohio river, it routes northwest through Versailles, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Indianapolis, Michigantown, Kirkin, Logansport, Rochester and South Bend to the Michigan line.

The section of some sixty miles just taken into the system will be maintained as a gravel road for the present. Under the commission's building program it is planned to pave the road from New Bethel to Shelbyville in 1924, which will complete a hard surface road between the Shelby county capitol and Indianapolis.

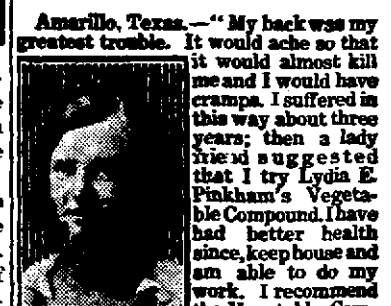

Mr. Williams points out that taking the Michigan road into the state system at this time with its continued maintenance insuring its excellent condition, is of great advantage to the public for it gives another direct route into northern Indiana. It is more advantageous at this time, he says, because much of the Range Line road, No. 1, is under construction and will be next year necessitating lengthy detours.

Members of the commission feel also that the Michigan road will always serve to relieve traffic congestion on No. 1 and also on the Lebanon - Indianapolis, Lafayette road providing one is going to the extreme north port of the state. Again it opens up additional territory to traveling salesmen and business interests by placing several towns on an excellent highway.
